MITCHELL REMOVED AS AIR OFFICER

RELIEVED OF ACTIVE DUTY
ON SATURDAYMajor General Hinds Refuses to Explain Removal of Fiery Critic

"PETREL" ALSO SILENT

Washington Reports Divesting of Office Due to Mitchell's Insubordination

San Antonio, Texas.—(AP)—Colonel William Mitchell, air service critic, was relieved from active duty, Sept. 19, by order of Major General Ernest Hinds, it became known here Monday. "I don't want to talk about it," Col. Mitchell declared Monday. "Please say that I have nothing what-ever to say. 'We have nothing to Hinds, it became known here Monday. 'Please say that there is no com-ment' from the Eighth corps area headquarters."

Following the Shenandoah disaster Col. Mitchell who is said to be one of the most decorated men in the army and who at one time during the World war, commanded the entire allied air fleets, issued a statement in which he declared recent air disasters were due to the "almost criminal negligence of the United States air service." Court martial charges which are said to be under preparation in Washington, have been expected in San Antonio for some time.

In addition, Col. Mitchell expected to be called as chief witness before the air service investigators appointed by President Coolidge as a direct result of Col. Mitchell's charges. The order was dated Saturday but was not made public until Monday reads:

"Relieve staff officer until further orders. Colonel William Mitchell, air service, is relieved as air officer of the Eighth corps area by command of Maj. General Ernest Hinds."

WAS UNRULY
Washington.—(AP)—Action of Major General Ernest Hinds in relieving Col. William Mitchell from active duty at San Antonio is understood to have been based on General Hinds' feeling that language used by Col. Mitchell relative to air service matters had been insubordinate to his superiors.

The order relieving Col. Mitchell from active duty does not require the war department approval and there was nothing to indicate the war department contemplated any action in the matter.

Court martial proceedings growing out of the public utterances of Col. Mitchell are in prospect within the next week or two and almost certainly will be held in Washington.

INQUIRY STARTS
Lakehurst, N. J.—(AP)—The naval court of inquiry into the cause of the Shenandoah disaster continued here Monday at 12:15, standard time. Rear Admiral Hilary P. Jones presided over the court. Immediately after convening the court went into executive session at 1:35 the court was thrown open to the public.

After Judge Advocate Foley had read the order of Secretary Wilbur directing the inquiry, the surviving officers and crew of the Shenandoah were questioned before the court and Rear Admiral Jones explained the purpose of the court and their rights. None of the officers or men are under any charges. The court is to determine from the evidence whether there are to be further proceedings.

Lieutenant Commander C. E. Rosendahl, senior surviving officer of the ship, was the first called and presented the first detailed report of the wrecking of the Shenandoah.

WALKER IS FAVORED

STARTLE ARMY

Charges that jarred army circles severely were laid when Maj. Gen. Harry L. Rogers, retired (above), filed an accusation against Maj. Gen. William H. Hart (below), declaring that Gen. Hart, while a colonel under him at the Brooklyn army base in 1921, had conspired to prevent his reappointment and to gain his place for himself.

Primary Election

Madison.—(AP)—Official returns from last Tuesday's special senatorial primary show a total of 332,728 votes cast for the candidates of all parties. The figures made public Monday by Secretary of State Zimmerman follow:

Republicans—LaFollette, 178,031; McGovern, 15,478; Wilcox, 81,834; Woodward, 30,366; scattering 49; total 318,758.

Democrats—Bruce, 7,393; Rogers, 3,441; scattering 133; total 7,969.

Socialist—Work, 5,950; scattering 51; total 6,001.

Prohibition—60 scattering. Arthur Barry, Milwaukee attorney and avowed vet, received one vote on the prohibition ticket.

The final pre-primary financial statement of William George Bruce, Democrat, received by the secretary of state Monday, shows his campaign expenses amounted to $2,497.42, and that he received no contributions.

Statements of the other candidates, except Roy P. Wilcox, Republican, were published Saturday. The Wilcox statement had not been received at noon Monday.

Senator Hendrick Shipstead, Minnesota, was paid $58.33 for speaking in the interest of Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., the accounts show.

TYPHOON SWEEPS THREE OFF DECK, TWO DROWN

Manila.—(AP)—A typhoon described by officers aboard the United States destroyers Ford and Pillsbury as the worst in their experience swept three sailors overboard off Twin Tao, China. Two were drowned. The third, a negro, was rescued after swimming through the disturbance for 45 minutes. The dead are: B. T. Steward and M. C. Sullivan, both residents of South Carolina.

Woman Near Oshkosh Shoots
Husband After He Had Beaten Her All Evening

Oshkosh.—(AP)—Louis Kramer, 38, was killed instantly at 2:30 Sunday morning when his wife discharged both barrels of a shotgun at his head while he lay sleeping on a canvas cot in front of his shack, Tumble Inn, at Oakwood beach, three miles north of Oshkosh on Lake Winnebago.

The shooting followed a night of terror for the wife, who, when she surrendered herself to the authorities, bore the marks of a terrific beating. From 8 o'clock until midnight, her husband had her in a corner and knocked her down each time she tried to rise from her chair, she told authorities. Her face was a swollen, discolored mass, and her right arm was in the same condition. During those four hours she held her 11-month-old baby in her arms. Her husband's life had been aroused she said, because a few weeks ago he had been arrested for non-support. Before going to sleep, he had promised "to get" her the next morning.

After shooting her husband, Mrs. Kramer sat by the bedside until dawn fearing that he would get up from the cot and intending, if he did so, to strike him over the head with the butt of the gun. But the front of Kramer's head had been completely blown off. As dawn Mrs. Kramer, with her baby in her arms and her three other children ranging in age from 4 to 10 years, trudging behind her, walked the entire distance to Oshkosh and surrendered herself to the authorities.

ARREST THREE
Waukegan, Ill.—(AP)—Arthur Holt, 50, and his stepdaughter, Mrs. Clara Harco, of Chicago, were charged with the murder of Mrs. Arthur Holt, the wife and mother of the accused in warrants issued Monday and Albert Harco, the son-in-law, was under arrest. Mrs. Holt was shot to death Sunday in the family summer home at Fox Lake.

Holt and his stepdaughter both contend Mrs. Holt committed suicide after a family quarrel. But one of the three bullets that entered the abdomen, penetrated the woman's head at the base of the skull in a course which State's Attorney A. V. Smith says could not have been self-inflicted.

As far as learned here, Holt and his son-in-law were two hours late for Sunday dinner which Mrs. Holt had prepared. Chickens were cooked and other delicacies prepared for a happy family dinner. When the men turned late, the food was cold and Mrs. Holt, disappointed, sought refuge in her chamber. Later, the father and stepdaughter told the state's attorney. Mrs. Holt appeared in the dining room with a revolver and shot herself.

IN DAMAGE SUIT
Kenosha.—(AP)—Mrs. Lillie Holt the woman who was mysteriously shot here Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. Noel Olliguy Reynold, 90 and 91 respectively, at St. Louis Catholic church, in an annual wedding anniversary observance. Surrounded by their 148 living relatives, the aged couple will go through the marriage ceremony again, this time attended by two couples, Mr. and Mrs. Cyren Archambault, who have been married 55 years, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Beard, who have celebrated their 50th anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynold were both born at St. Remy, in the province of Quebec. They were married in Canada, coming to the United States 50 years ago, after Mr. Reynold had retired from farming in his native land. Despite his age, Mr. Reynold has expressed an intention to "dance at my own wedding."

A wedding feast will follow the church ceremony. Of the 12 children born to the couple, eight are living. The grand children number 59 and the great grandchildren 73.

Mob Lynchs Negro Who Assaulted Young Girl

Albany, Miss.—(AP)—No arrests had been made Monday in connection with the lynching of J. P. Ivy, negro who was burned at the stake 18 miles from here, Sunday. Sheriff Roberts, from whom the negro was taken by a mob of nearly a thousand persons, declared he did not recognize any of those in the crowd.

The mob dispersed after the lynching and the negro's story that three other negroes were implicated with him in attacking the daughter of a farmer Friday was discounted when the girl, who is in a serious condition, declared Ivy alone attacked her. Ivy was a member of a timber cutting crew working near the field in which the young girl was assaulted. Claiming the girl might die, the mob leaders, secured a writ from a magistrate's court ordering the sher-

SIX CARS WRECKED IN MILWAUKEE AUTO RACE

Milwaukee.—(AP)—Two automobiles went through the fence, three others became entangled in a collision and a sixth burst into flames while traveling at high speed during automobile races staged at state fair park here Sunday. In spite of the series of accidents only one driver, George Young, required medical attention. Henry Haberland, Waukesha, and Jack Brogan, drivers of the cars which left the track, saved themselves by crouching low in their seats. Their cars were wrecked. Near the finish of a 25 mile race, a car driven by Francis Reineke, West Bend burst into flames. The fire was extinguished without injury to the driver. Young was hurt when his car and two others became entangled at the beginning of the same race. His injuries were not serious.

Socialist Blames LaFollette's
Light Vote to Breaking

Milwaukee.—(AP)—Eugene V. Debs, patriarch of the Socialist party, was the principal speaker here Sunday night at a mass meeting held for John M. Work, Socialist candidate for United States senator. Debs outlined the principles of the Socialist party and urged all Socialists to stick to their party ballot. He declared in the campaign for United States senator that John M. Work is the one outstanding candidate.

"This election is of extraordinary significance in the history of the United States. The issue is so clear a child should understand it. If you prefer human brotherhood to brute force, you must be with the Socialist party."

Work, also spoke, attacking Robert M. LaFollette, Jr. for not following in the footsteps of his father. "The most conspicuous feature of the recent primary was the fact that young LaFollette lost 209,000 votes, as compared with the last vote of his father, in the campaign of 1924. The truth is that young Bob has discarded his father's plans."

BOB AND WORK ARE BUSY
Bruce Plans Little Activity as He Considers His Chances
Hopeless

Milwaukee.—(AP)—Candidates for election as United States senator Sept. 29, are going into the last week of the campaign, with Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., getting away to running start.

While anti-LaFollette Republicans were in conference late last week, which resulted in the withdrawal of Roy P. Wilcox, Coolidge Republican candidate endorsed at the convention of anti-LaFollette Republicans at Oshkosh in August, and Arthur Barry, Milwaukee, who has registered as an independent also, LaFollette was busy. Wilcox's withdrawal from the ranks of the independents, leaves only Edward F. Dithmar, of Baraboo, and George Bruce of Milwaukee, a Democrat in the running as independents.

The other candidates are John M. Work, Socialist nominee and George Bauman, Socialist-Labor candidate. Work is the only candidate who has even attempted so far to keep step with the flying LaFollette who opened his final drive last week at Stevens Point. Work has been holding meetings in the industrial centers and Sunday night met a gathering at the local auditorium, which was addressed by Eugene V. Debs, Socialist.

Dithmar is opening headquarters here Monday and expects to have an announcement of his campaign plans late Monday or Tuesday. Registered as an independent candidate from the start, and not on the ticket in the primary, Dithmar held back his campaign until Wilcox, who had entered as both Republican and independent withdrew.

Bruce is not planning on making much of a campaign. He is of the opinion that a Democrat running as independent in Wisconsin has but little chance. In a statement issued recently he said that following the primary, in which he did not poll a sufficient vote to meet the election law requirements of 5 per cent of the total of the party leader at the last election he cancelled all his speaking trips and all his advertising.

"I decided there was not much hope, and only after Wilcox's withdrawal did I decide to continue the campaign, by mail. I intend placing before the voters of the state the reasonableness of giving a Democrat running as an independent a vote while permitting the Republican to settle their differences out of office."

"I have returned the contributions which I have received from my friends and I do that there is much chance for a Democrat running as an independent in Wisconsin."

FRANK WALSH AMONG
HIGH GOLF SCORERS

Chicago, Ill.—(AP)—Good, mediocre and even poor golf was played by the 64 starters in the first qualifying rounds for the Professional Golf association championship at Olympia fields country club Monday. Al Watrous, of Grand Rapids, was the leader among the good players, scoring par 70 on No. 3 course.

With a strong wind from the north Walter Hagen of Pasadena, Fla., the defending champion, took 76 strokes on No. 4 course. A few players in parentheses included: Al Watrous (3) 33-37-70; Dave Robertson, Detroit (3) 37-39-76; Frank Walsh, Appleton, (4) 39-41-80; Jack Blakesley, Kenosha, (4) 39-36-75.

Frank Walsh of Appleton sank a chip shot over a top bunker for a birdie 3 on the long tenth on the same link.

Outcome Of Coolidge,
Haney Difference To Mould Shipping Policy

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1925 by Post Pub. Co.
Washington, D. C.—President Coolidge is up against one of the most embarrassing situations of his public career in the question of how he shall dispose of Bert M. Haney, of Oregon, member of the United States shipping board.

The president demanded Mr. Haney's resignation from the United States shipping board is requested.

Mr. Haney intended to leave the board in a few months anyway. He had told the president when he was appointed in June that he could not stay beyond next February. But he will resign under a cloud of broken promises.

Mr. Haney's viewpoint was made clear to the president at the time he was reappointed. Close friends of both the president and Mr. Haney have been trying to patch up the squabble without success. It seems Mr. Haney told the president he wanted Admiral Palmer removed and could not support him. The president asked Mr. Haney to make an effort to do so. Mr. Haney is said to have made no reply but left it clear that he was making no promises.

Friends of the president say the latter was angry when he wrote the telegram to Mr. Haney and that he does recall Mr. Haney's expression of disapproval of Admiral Palmer but that the president expected Mr. Haney to change his views.

When Admiral Palmer was appointed by the shipping board he was asked to file his resignation at the same time, so that motion to be made now is to accept that resignation. The emergency fleet corporation is a creature of the shipping board which in turn is the creature of congress. It is not a department of the executive branch. It is like the interstate commerce commission.

Hence a big quarrel looms as to the right of the president to control the shipping board policies, by exacting promises from prospective appointees. Mr. Coolidge's telegram to Mr. Haney disclosed that he expected Mr. Haney to support Admiral Palmer. The president telegraphed, "It having come to my attention that you are proposing to remove Admiral Palmer contrary to the understanding I had with you when I reappointed."

REPORT FROST
IN WISCONSIN

Cool Weather Due to High Pressure Area Moving in from Northwest Canada

Milwaukee.—(AP)—Killing frosts were reported in northwestern Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota Sunday night, according to reports here Monday at the weather bureau.

The lowest temperature reported in Wisconsin was at Superior where the mercury dropped to 32 degrees, while it got as cold at 28 degrees above at Bismark, N. D.

Milwaukee got a taste of what is coming Sunday night when temperature dropped from 82 degrees Sunday to 50 degrees Monday.

The sudden change was due to a high pressure area moving into this section from the Canadian northwest, on the heels of a low pressure area which caused Sunday's heat. Clear cool weather is likely to remain until the middle of the week, the weather office here reported.

GIRL ATTEMPTS TO SAVE
PLAYMATE, BOTH DROWN

Taylor Falls, Minn.—(AP)—While 2,000 people stood watching helpless to give aid, Sunday, an 11-year-old school girl went to the rescue of her 9-year companion, when the latter dropped from the top of a 60-foot cliff and both went to their death in the rushing waters of the St. Croix river here.

The 11-year-old girl, whose body was recovered 20 minutes after her heroic plunge was Evelyn Lillian Wampler, of Minneapolis. Her companion was Irene Anby, also of Minneapolis. The body of the latter had not been recovered at a late hour Sunday night after rescue parties, including the fire departments of Taylor Falls and St. Croix, Wis., had made a close search of the falls.

EQUIPMENT INADEQUATE

Acting Secretary of War Tells Board Department Welcomes Inquiry

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—The American people are assured by acting Secretary of War Davis that there is "no reason to be panicky about the condition of the army air service."

Testifying Monday as the first witness before the president's aircraft board investigation, Mr. Davis outlined the policy of the army, air department and pointed to the successful world flight by army planes as one achievement which has "proved its right to public confidence."

"The amount of equipment is inadequate," he said, "but this is controlled by funds available, while its personnel although somewhat limited, is unexcelled by any air service in the world."

Mr. Davis, who first urged appointment of the board, pledged the full cooperation of the war department in the inquiry and said that if during the investigation charges were made against its administration he would approve of an opportunity to reappear and answer them.

WELCOMES PROBE
"The war department," Mr. Davis said, "welcomes this inquiry into the air defenses of the country by this board of disinterested citizens. National defense is a sacred trust of all the people. They have the right to know whether appropriations are being wisely and economically expended and whether the defenses of the country are planned, organized and equipped in the most effective manner."

"In the consideration of this vitally important subject honest differences of opinion naturally arise. They exist within the war department itself, and you will undoubtedly hear today, and the proper explanation of honest convictions is to be encouraged. The war department impugns the motives of no critics. It has the right to demand the same fair dealing for itself. It seeks to keep an open mind on all debatable questions, to adopt any constructive suggestions which it can approve, to improve the service wherever its means will permit."

FACTS WANTED
"In carrying out its desired responsibility for the national defense, it is morally bound to insist that mere assurances must be backed up by hard facts, that due considerations must be given to the costly experience of the past in weighing speculations as to the future, that change for the sake of change alone is unjustifiable. We here are all actuated by the same fundamental motive, that patriotic desire to safeguard our common heritage; we may honestly differ as to the ways and means of accomplishment. In such a discussion there is no place for passion, personalities or prejudices. In that spirit we welcome this inquiry."

"On behalf of the war department I am glad to offer the board of aviation inquiry every assistance in our power. I believe that the board wants sense, not sensation, facts, not fancies, arguments, not mere assertions. All studies, records, and reports, whether public, confidential or secret, are at your disposal. Officers, enlisted men and employees will appear before you if and when desired and will testify fully, freely and frankly. There has not been, is not now and will not be

JUMPS ON PILOT OF ENGINE AS IT HITS HIS WAGON

Youth Only Slightly Hurt
When Milk Wagon Is Struck
by Passenger Train

By clinging to the pilot of a North-western excursion train after it had struck the milk wagon he was driving at the N. State-st. crossing early Sunday morning, completely demolishing the wagon, William Faas, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy, 139 N. Richmond-st., escaped with a badly bruised left shoulder and arm. Faas, who drives a delivery wagon for the Dairy Specialty Co., 120 N. Superior-st., approached the N. State-st. crossing at about 6:50 Sunday morning without noticing the approaching train until his wagon was directly across the tracks. A moment later the train struck the wagon squarely with Faas still inside.

That Faas was not seriously injured was due to his presence of mind. At the exact moment of the crash he jumped, landed on the pilot and hung fast until the train stopped several hundred feet beyond. The minor injuries he did receive were due only to the jolt when he struck the pilot.

The train which struck Faas was Milwaukee excursion train No. 1521 in charge of conductor Charles Murphy. H. Flannagan was the engineer. The train was moving at a slow rate of speed at the time, having just left the depot, and it is perhaps due to this fact more than anything else that Faas escaped as lightly as he did.

Faas was taken to St. Elizabeth's hospital immediately by a passing motorist. An examination revealed that Faas was not suffering from internal injuries. An X-ray was to be taken Monday to determine whether the shoulder was broken or just badly bruised.

Although the horse which was drawing the wagon was just across the tracks when the train went by, it was badly injured.

PUBLIC IS FICKLE, SHE SAYS

MINNIE AND ONE OF HER CHARGES.

London—Yes—the public is fickle! muses Minnie as she swings by her tail from a fat bunch of bananas in a fruit brokerage concern here.

It's chicken today and feathers tomorrow, she continues—or perhaps a Rhedesian monkey would prefer the contrast in terms of cocoanuts.

Anyway, Minnie had a stage career well under way when—plop! Actors will understand how that is.

Perhaps it would have been best had Minnie never left the Rhedesian jungle for the stage. She really didn't have her heart set on a stage career, but some city slicker came along and wheedled her away from home with promises of peanuts.

And so that time came when she appeared almost nightly at Convent Garden Opera House as part of a German grand opera company. Her great role, the critics said, was "I Pagliacci" when she was allowed to run fairly wild in the traveling circus and her chattering always got a laugh.

However, somebody always dragged her off the stage just as the soprano started singing and when Minnie was just getting warmed up to some high notes—professional jealousy, no doubt.

Then the company went back to Germany and forgot to put Minnie in the baggage car. So she drifted lower and lower—just as her wiser sisters had warned her in the jungle.

Today she holds a menial job—nursemaid to a litter of cats, whose parentage is most obscure. A kindly broker picked her up and gave her room and board in his place. The indiscreet cat that shared these quarters came in one day with a lot of kittens, and Minnie's mother complex caused her to take a kindly interest.

Now she has the steady job and people say: "How cute!" which in the funny language seems to be some sort of applause.

By trimming trees every year as the telephone line crew does, the shape of the trees will not be spoiled. The line crew is furnished with detailed instructions on how to trim trees and follows these instructions to the letter. Some trees are trimmed off the square, and the very tall trees which tower high above the wires it is necessary to trim off only the lower limbs which droop over the lines.

The city of Appleton is divided into 40 plots by the telephone company, and each of these is inspected every year at a certain time, and the necessary tree trimming done. There also are seven plots of the company's rural lines and regular inspections are made.

THIEVES STEAL NEW LONDON CAR

Green Bay Police Fire at Thieves but Lose Car in Traffic

Appleton police have been asked to watch for a Lincoln four passenger open touring car belonging to E. H. Baum of New London which was stolen from its owner at Green Bay Sunday evening. The car had a light khaki top, carried two spare tires and had a nickel plated radiator. The thieves were almost thwarted in their escape when police officers spied them and took several shots at the car, flattening one tire. Officers lost the trail of the fugitives in the traffic, however. Police in neighboring cities were immediately notified to be on the lookout for a car answering the above description.

Miss Mary O'Leary left Wednesday for St. Mary college, Notre Dame, Ind., where she is instructor in home economics for the coming year.

WISCONSIN WEATHER

Fair in east; increasing cloudiness and somewhat warmer in west portion tonight; Tuesday somewhat unsettled; frosts in lowlands of north portion tonight.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

A low area moving across the northern lake region over the week-end has caused strong winds over the Great Lakes, but very little precipitation. High temperatures accompany its progress. High pressure follows the "low" over the northwest. It is centered this morning over the northern plains, with a sharp drop in temperature eastward over the lake region and southward to the lower Mississippi valleys. Killing frosts are reported from North Dakota and northern Minnesota this morning. This "high" will cause generally fair weather in this section over Tuesday with slightly lower temperature tonight. Frost is probable.

POLICE TOLD CAR IS STOLEN AT NEENAH

A Studebaker special sedan belonging to F. H. Gordon of Oshkosh, bearing license No. 4549E, was stolen from Neenah Sunday night. It was reported at local police headquarters Monday morning.

The car was equipped with three Miller tires and one Fisk tire. It also carried one spare and an Oshkosh name plate on both the front and rear.

METHODIST QUARTET SINGS AT SERVICES

Singing by the mixed quartet of the Methodist Episcopal church was resumed at the church service Sunday. The quartet is composed of Mrs. Winifred Wilson Quinlan, soprano; Mrs. Oscar Adler, alto; George C. Nixon, tenor; Carl McKee, bass. Mrs. Quinlan and Mr. McKee are voice instructors in the Lawrence Conservatory of Music. The quartet is under the direction of Mr. McKee.

CAN'T FIND CLEWS TO HARDWARE ROBBERIES

No clues, which might lead to the discovery of the burglars who looted the George Schindermayer and Sons Hardware store, 623-625 W. College-ave, last Thursday night of five revolvers, a flashlight, a large knife and a box of cartridges valued at $50, has been discovered.

Police have been working on the case since that time but whoever committed the robbery evidently left nothing behind which might identify him.

Committee Will Meet

The general committee in charge of arrangements for the diamond jubilee of the First Congregational church and the Wisconsin Congregational conference which meets here early in October, will meet at the church at 7:30 Tuesday evening. Work which has been done by the subcommittees to date will be reviewed and further plans outlined. The entertainment committee is seeking homes for 500 delegates expected here.

Careful Tree Trimming Keeps City Beautiful

Appleton could be made a much prettier city than it already is, according to Prof. W. E. Rogers, head of the botany department of Lawrence college. If people here would trim their trees properly, and start trimming them while they are still small instead of waiting until they attain a large size, Prof. Rogers said that too many people are apt to regard trees as mere sticks of wood with no life or responsive powers, and that these people do not realize a tree can be trained into growing any desired shape if properly trimmed while young.

The usual method followed in tree trimming, according to Prof. Rogers, is to wait until the tree has grown into an ungainly shape, and then hack off the limbs in any manner which happens to be easiest and quickest for the trimmer. Careless tree trimming is almost worse than no trimming at all, as it not only makes an eyesore of the tree trimmed, but also will shorten the life of the tree by several years. Most people cut off the limbs about a foot or eighteen inches from the main trunk. There are two serious faults in this method, according to Prof. Rogers. The most serious is that the bark on the tree trunk does not have a chance to grow and fold over the cut as it does when the limb is taken off flush with the trunk, and thus seal up the wound from infection. The other is that short stumps make a very unsightly tree.

In trimming a large limb from a tree, a slanting cut should at first be made on the under side of the limb toward the trunk. This cut should be started about an inch from the trunk. When the saw is pinched it should be withdrawn, and a straight cut from the upper side of the limb and flush from the trunk should be started. The cut from the upper side will run into the first cut, and the limb will fall off without tearing the bark and wood of the trunk as it invariably will do if no undercut is made. Open wounds on trees, especially where the trunk has been torn, are easily infected. As a precautionary measure against infection in tree wounds, the wound should be painted with creosote preparation or some equally impervious substance, Prof. Rogers said.

Not enough attention is paid to Appleton's shade trees, Prof. Rogers declared. People neglect to trim their trees until the trees start to die, and then it is usually too late to save them because infection has set in so heavily.

City employees now are busy trimming trees which have limbs interfering with street lights. According to Mayor John Goodland the work of the city force is considerably lightened this year because most Appleton residents have been very generous in co-operating with the city in trimming trees. Linesmen employed by the Wisconsin Telephone Co. are kept busy all year trimming trees. The entire city is "covered" each year to make sure that telephone wires are clear of trees. Wires that need most attention are the twisted pairs running from the poles to the homes. The insulation on these wires must be watched constantly.

Toll lines of the telephone company are inspected every month, to see that they are not hindered by trees, for these lines are thrown out of balance very easily by outside interference. The cables also must be closely inspected. Leakage on toll lines and cables so that the current is grounded

Firestone

Double the Mileage at Half the Cost

Only a few years ago, a 32 x 4 cord tire listed over $50.00. Today, you can buy the highest quality 32 x 4 tire—a Firestone Gum-Dipped Cord—for about $26.00

Last spring crude rubber cost tire makers around 40 cents a pound. Today, it is over 90 cents a pound.

It was not so long ago that 7,500 miles represented the average life of a cord tire, while today, 15,000 miles—and more—is only the usual performance for a Firestone Gum-Dipped Cord.

Due to large, concentrated production, specialized machinery and simplified factory methods, together with economical distribution, Firestone is able to keep tire prices low—no matter where crude rubber prices go.

And, because of special Firestone processes, chief among which is Gum-Dipping, motorists are getting thousands of extra miles by using Gum-Dipped Cords.

Gum-Dipping is an exclusive method used by Firestone. It is an extra process, carried out in special Gum-Dipping plants, after which the cords are put through the usual calendaring machines. Gum-Dipping insulates and impregnates every fiber of every cord with rubber, and practically eliminates internal friction and heat and builds strength and endurance into the tire.

In the day-in and day-out service of taxicab, bus and truck operators—on the cars of hundreds of thousands of motorists everywhere—Firestone Full-Size Gum-Dipped Cords are giving unheard-of mileage, dependability and satisfaction.

Get ready for the coming months of slippery pavements and bad roads. Assure yourself of greater safety, comfort and economy by equipping now with Firestone Gum-Dipped Balloons.

FUTURE OF SON HANGS ON START GIVEN BY "DAD"

Gamel Opens Two Weeks
Campaign Among Boys
With Address on "Just

It is a wonderful thing to become a father—to bring into being a soul that is to live forever and start it voyaging toward eternity, but it is infinitely more wonderful to really be a father afterward.

Such was the message conveyed to approximately 700 persons at Lawrence Memorial chapel Sunday evening by Frank H. Gamel, boyology expert, in the first of a series of talks which he will give in Appleton during the next two weeks on fatherhood. The subject of his first address was "Just Dad."

If the relation between father and son is right and if the father is really doing what he should do for his son, all other outside agencies on earth and in hell cannot lead the son from the pathway of righteousness and good, the speaker declared. It is only when a man who has become a father actually fails to be a father that the son allows himself to be led astray.

"Back of every boy gone wrong, there is a father who has failed," Mr. Gamel said. "The boy came into the world with a soul white as snow, but a soul that was also plastic. If the father is a true father, he would direct his son's soul along the path of virtue and righteousness. Failing to do this, he is not a real father."

FATHERS FORGOTTEN

From time immemorial, artists and poets have vied with each other to do honor and homage to motherhood, the speaker began. People have learned to honor and appreciate motherhood and regard it with wonder and respect.

In expressing appreciation for fatherhood, however, people have been surprisingly slow, he stated. It has always been taken for granted that fathers will keep on functioning steadily and smoothly and as a consequence they have been forgotten.

"The finest mother that ever walked the earth could not make home what it should be unless father was on the job all the time," performing the full share of his task," continued Mr. Gamel. "It is father who is the representative home maker. If he fails, no mother could accomplish what would have been possible if the father actually was a father."

In this busy world of today, business and pleasure too often crowd the duties of fatherhood and even motherhood into the background, the speaker claimed. Few people find time to accomplish tasks they know should be done, and as a result they are left undone.

FORGET BIG THINGS

"I sincerely hope the time will come when people will be interested in the big things of life that they will forget the smaller, insignificant things and stop quarreling over them," he said. "When that time comes, this will be a much better world to live in."

"People do not even have time to call on Mrs. Smith, she is helping all the way down the street that Mrs. Smith won't be home. Then she may leave her calling card and consider her duty accomplished for several weeks to come. If Mrs. Smith is at home, poor Mrs. Jones must undergo the ordeal of a visit for 15 or 20 minutes."

A new perception of the meaning of God, that of fatherhood, was given people only with the development of government, according to Mr. Gamel, when the world was created, people lived alone. Next they banded together in small groups, both for protection against animals and themselves. Strong men in various groups conceived the idea of a club to make their desires known, and the monarchical form of government was begun. Then other strong men in each group got clubs and received a voice in government, and the government with limited monarchy was started.

LEARN TO PRAY

But until the coming of Jesus, people did not know how to pray, he continued. They groveled on the ground and pleaded with God not to harm them. When Jesus came, he taught them a new meaning and purpose of prayer.

"Perhaps one of the saddest moments in a father's life is the time when he realizes he has failed to be a true father," said Mr. Gamel. "He has watched his son grow from a mere child to a tall and promising young man from whom much can be expected. Then the day comes when the son goes before his father with hanging head and with the confession of some wrong doing. And suddenly the father is made to realize that it is his fault, and not the son's that the latter committed the wrong doing. Because the father failed to take notice of and guide his son, the son did not think the father was interested in him and so he allowed his activities to enter the wrong channel."

The lack of discipline in the typical American home was also blamed by Mr. Gamel for the failure of many children to live up to their parents' expectations. He said that when a father or mother have spoken to their children, it should end all argument. This is one of the things which people of today have not learned and should learn.

SERIOUS BUSINESS

"Final word of parents should be final law in the home," he said. "If this is not the case, the child is being done an injustice, for if he has not learned to respect law in his own home, he will not be apt to learn it in the outside world."

The task of being a father was described by the speaker as a most serious business. The father must establish ideals for his boy and lead

WOMAN ASLEEP IN CAR IS INJURED IN CRASH

Mrs. J. F. Kozek, Manitowish, is in St. Elizabeth hospital suffering from severe bruises and cuts suffered Saturday morning at Leppas corner on highway 18 when the sedan in which she was riding was struck by a coupe belonging to an Oshkosh man whose name has not been ascertained. The Kozek car was going west on highway 18 and the Oshkosh car was going north on highway 26, and it is thought that neither driver saw the other car coming until it was too late to avert a collision. Mr. Kozek was driving the sedan and Mrs. Kozek was sleeping in the back seat. Both cars were badly damaged.

FINAL PROGRAM PLEASES CROWD

Artillery Band Applauded as It Plays Popular Numbers in City Park

Playing their last concert of the season before a large and appreciative audience Friday evening at city park, the 120th P. A. Artillery band made itself more popular than ever with music lovers of the city by playing for the final concert a program made up almost entirely of request numbers. Practically all the numbers on the program were endorsed by the audience, and the band responded to the great applause by playing popular song hits.

Carl McKee, feature soloist of the concert, did very well in his singing of such popular pieces as "Wonderful One" and "Midnight Waltz." He responded to an encore. The overture, "Morning, Noon and Night" by Suppe was especially well received, as was a medley of old time songs such as "O'ld Black Joe" and "O'ld Folks at Home." The duet of A. L. Gmeiner, cornet and Stephen C. Rosebush, euphonium, in the prison scene from "Il Trovatore" was especially commendable.

Work will be started immediately on the winter indoor band concert, according to Edward Mumm, conductor. Anyone making a request number, is advised to write to Mr. Mumm, in care of the Post-Crescent.

the way for the latter. Character, he said, is caught, not taught.

And if young boys wish to be the right kind of fathers, they must start now by being the right kind of sons, Mr. Gamel advised. If boys do not start now, it is very improbable they will turn out to be good fathers later on.

"One of the sweetest of all human relationships is the relationship between father and son," concluded the speaker. "If the day ever comes when more fathers and sons will walk a little closer, steadying and helping each other, we shall have accomplished something well worth while."

Dr. J. A. Holmes of the First Methodist church presided at the meeting, which was opened with community singing led by Carl McKee, musical director of Appleton high school. Prayers at the opening and closing of the meeting were offered by Dr. D. O. Kinsman and Dr. H. E. Peabody.

Girl Gained 7 Pounds Nine Years an Invalid

That's just what McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets did for the Babcock girl—and is doing as much for tens of thousands of thin, underweight, weak and discouraged people all over America.

These sugar coated, pleasant to take tablets should be given to children instead of the vile stomach upsetting oil itself—they surely do help the frail delicate little ones, and 60 tablets cost but 60 cents at Schmitz Bros., Downtown Drug Store or any real druggist anywhere in America.

Read this letter if you have a child that needs to gain health and strength. "My little girl was stricken with infantile paralysis when she was 5 months old and was an invalid for 9 years—when I saw an ad in the paper that McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets would build up wasted tissues. I bought a box and she gained very slowly at first and after taking eight boxes, she gained seven pounds. Thanks to McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, after trying almost everything else on the market. She is on the road to recovery and goes to school every day." Mrs. L. Babcock, Appleton, Wis.

Imitations of McCoy's may be offered but be sure and ask for McCoy's, the original and genuine and if after thirty days treatment you are not delighted with results—first get your money back.

The lack of discipline in the typical American home was also blamed by Mr. Gamel for the failure of many children to live up to their parents' expectations. He said that when a father or mother have spoken to their children, it should end all argument. This is one of the things which people of today have not learned and should learn.

Proper Salvage Methods Pointed Out To Firemen

The importance of intelligent salvage work at fires is pointed out in a communication to George P. McGilgan, chief of the fire department, from the state industrial commission. So important does the commission regard this work that the delegation of part of the force to salvage work is even recommended.

Fire loss is due to fire, water, smoke, breakage and stealing, all elements which must be kept in mind by the chief and his men, the communication points out. Often the water damage is greater than the direct fire damage.

The communication further says: "Many volunteer departments are strong in number of members but overmanned in fact. Some of these could well be delegated to do salvage work exclusively at the time of and after the fire. If nothing better can be had, a rebuilt old car could carry this salvage squad to the fire and a supply of waterproof covers or tarpaulins.

"Merchandise on counters, in cases or on shelves could be covered in a short time to prevent damage by water. Household furniture could be moved to the center of the room, clothing and rugs piled on top and all

AFTER MEETING OF SECRETARIES

Corbett Leads Movement to Bring 1926 National Convention to Milwaukee

Wisconsin will make a strong bid for the 1926 convention of the National Association of Commercial Organization Secretaries when it convenes Oct. 26, 27 and 28 at Kansas City according to Hugh G. Corbett, secretary of Appleton Chamber of Commerce, who is one of the leaders in the attempt.

Mr. Corbett was delegated to secure ment but little to confine the fire to the story or room of its origin, unless the damage from water below is controlled. The local department has always used the utmost care in caring for property at fires and salvage work has been continually stressed to the men. The suggestions of the industrial commission are excellent and should be carried out wherever possible, according to Chief McGilgan.

Polarine is a quality oil. The average layman knows little about lubricating quality—only a chemist can determine that. You are forced to accept the word of the manufacturer for you cannot tell by looking at an oil whether it is good or bad.

In that respect, Polarine has a tremendous advantage, for it is manufactured by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). The integrity of the company is back of every drop. Motorists, generally, have come to recognize this eloquent argument for Polarine. Our sales sheets support this statement.

The main difference for the variation in quality in oils is in their ancestry. Polarine is made from crudes, specially selected for their particular lubricating quality.

Such crudes—and only such crudes—are used in the manufacture of Polarine. To maintain the Polarine quality is a precept of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) organization. You may depend upon it!

Buy Polarine with the complete assurance that it will thoroughly lubricate the remotest frictional surfaces of your engine—that it will conserve all the power your engine can develop—that it will reduce your operating cost to a minimum.

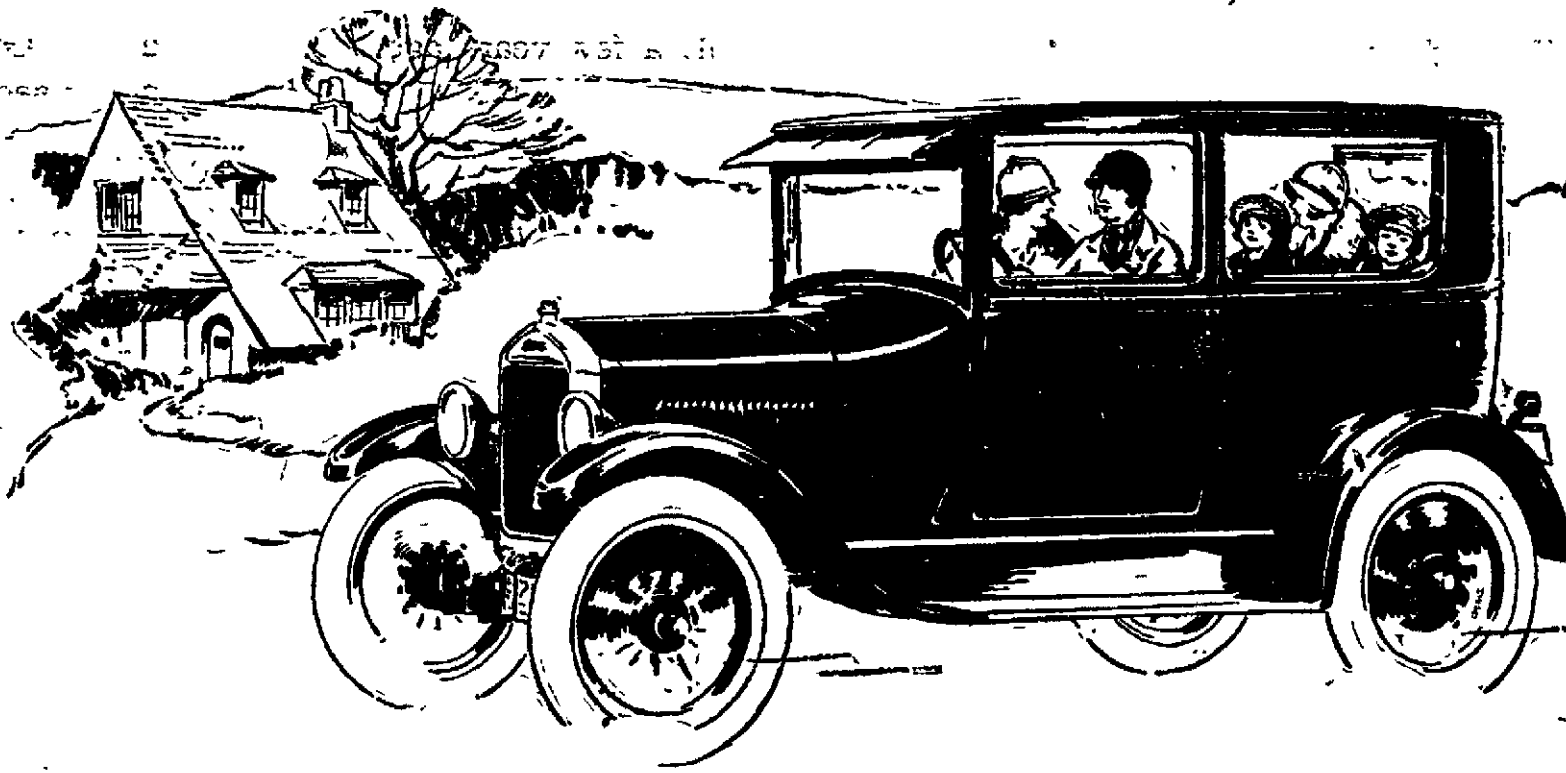

Change every 500 miles, thoroughly cleanse your motor with Polarine Flushing Oil, and refill with fresh Polarine. This will effect still greater economy and efficiency.

Noted Mason Degree Team Here Tuesday

Thirty-five or more Masons of Henry L. Palmer chapter No. 57, Milwaukee, and approximately one hundred from Appleton chapter No. 47 have made reservations for the chapter banquet which is to take place at 6:30 Tuesday evening at Masonic temple.

Motorbuses have been chartered by the Milwaukee lodge for the journey to Appleton and back. The visitors will bring a degree team which is considered one of the best in the state to put on work at the lodge session which follows the banquet.

Several entertainers from Milwaukee will be included in the delegation and will present numbers between courses at the banquet. The welcome to the visitors will be extended by Dr. J. A. Holmes.

The royal arch degree is to be conferred on three candidates by Palmer chapter, and a large attendance is expected to witness the ceremonies.

TEACHER FROM JAPAN MISSION CLUB SPEAKER

Miss Eleanor Burnett, one of the seven missionaries supported by the women of Wisconsin, will be the principal speaker at the meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors. Miss Burnett comes here direct from Kobe college, Japan, the first Christian college in western Japan and the leading one there today. The women of Wisconsin are working to obtain funds for the erection of additional college buildings.

Mrs. Frank Hammer will be chairman of the hostesses. Mrs. John Wilson has charge of the devotions and Mrs. T. E. Orblison has charge of the program. This will be the thank offering meeting of the society and each member is expected to make a contribution toward the support of Kobe college.

Adventures Of The Twins

Pair of Old Shoes
"I shall tell you the story of a pair of old shoes," said Mi O' Mi, the Story Teller, to the Twins.
"Were they magic?" asked Nick.
"You may decide for yourselves," said Mi O' Mi.

"Once upon a time there were two children who lived with their father in a very poor tenement house in a big city.
"Mr. Emerson had once been a soldier and a gentleman, but some way or other he had forgotten that he had ever been a person of importance. He got discouraged after his wife died and he would not work—his clothes got ragged and soiled and he made no attempt whatever to keep himself shaved and neat.
"Mary did what she could at keeping the place clean, and even Jimmy helped with the washing and ironing and cleaning and cooking—when there was food in the house.

"But often there was no food at all, and at last two ladies came and took the children away. Each was to have a child to clothe and feed and care for, and in return Mary and Jimmy were to help as much as they could with small duties about the house.
"But Mary worried and worried. 'I wonder how Father is getting along,' she would say to herself. 'I wonder if he needs me.' And then, after a few days, she decided to go back.

"It happened that on that day she was helping Mrs. Hornaby to clean out cupboards, and there was an old pair of shoes of Mr. Hornaby's to be thrown out.
"I'll give them to the ragman next time he comes," said Mrs. Hornaby.
"Mary picked the shoes up. 'Why, they aren't worn out,' she said. 'They only need new soles and a little splash on the side. They are quite splendid.'

"And indeed they were so much better than the shoes she had ever seen her father wear, that it was no wonder she felt so.
"So when she told Mrs. Hornaby that she couldn't stay, but would have to go home, she added, 'May I take the shoes along, if you please?'

"Certainly," said the good lady. 'And here are two dollars for a present because you have been so good and worked so hard to please me. If you ever want a home, come back, my dear.'

"Mary stopped at a shoemaker's on the way home. She sat patiently for two hours while the shoes were being repaired. Then she took them to a boot-black's and had them shined. It took nearly all of her money.
"Then she took the shoes home to her father.

"What happened then?" asked Nancy.
"Mr. Emerson put the shoes on,"

"RUSHING" TEAS OF SORORITIES AT SIX HOMES

Kappa Alpha Theta sorority of Lawrence college held its first "rushing tea" Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Mary Thom, 708 E. College-ave. Mrs. George Fannon and Miss Edith Reeve presented several violin and piano selections.

Kappa Delta sorority held its tea at the home of Mrs. E. L. Bolton, 818 E. College-ave and the Delta Gamma tea was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Vaiton, 735 E. John-st. Among other sororities that had teas on Saturday for the purpose of "rushing" eligible were: Phi Mu, at the home of Mrs. O. P. Fairfield, 804 E. South-st; Beta Phi Alpha, with Mrs. Olin Mendle, 416 E. Pacific-st and Alpha Delta Pi with Mrs. N. H. Brockaw, 210 S. Union-st.

AUXILIARY WILL MEET TUESDAY

All women who are selling tickets for the artist course of the American Legion auxiliary are asked to attend a meeting at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Conway hotel. A checkup will be made at that time on the work done thus far. Those who cannot be present are asked by Mrs. E. E. Dunn, chairman, to report to their captains beforehand.

Arrangements have been made so that persons wanting tickets but who have not been visited by a solicitor may obtain them by telephoning Mrs. Phil Miller, No. 812, and the tickets will be delivered to them.

Reservation of seats for the season will take place Friday at Deiling drug store. The auxiliary has decided to limit the number reserved by any one person to ten.

said Mi O' Mi, "and some way they reminded him of the days when he had been a gentleman and had a good home and clothes and everything comfortable. The next thing he did was to go to an old bureau and fish out a clean collar. Then he shaved. 'I feel like my old self some way,' Mary," he said, "I'm going out and look for work."

"And did he get it?" asked Nick. "Sure, he did, said Mi O' Mi. 'And a happier family never lived. Jimmy came back and Mr. Emerson was able after a while to rent a little home with a porch and garden. He never got discouraged after that, but kept right on. Now what do you think of the shoes? Were they magic?'

"Maybe," said Nancy. "But I think it was Mary who did it all."

RIDER SUFFERS BROKEN LEG AS HORSE HITS CAR

Collision Between Riding Animal and Automobile Results in Death of Horse

Kaukauna—George Anderson, suffered a broken leg and severe body bruises and cuts as the result of being hit by a car driven by Jack Hillenberger, while the former was horse back riding about 8 o'clock Saturday night.

Anderson was traveling north on Catherine-st. and Hilgenberg was traveling south. The street was very dark owing to the shade trees which grow close to the road. It is said that as Hilgenberg approached Anderson the horse on which Anderson was riding started to balk. Hilgenberg in an attempt to keep from hitting the horse turned to the left and meanwhile the horse jumped directly in front of the car and was struck. Amay Bayoregon, who was in the car with Hilgenberg at the time of the accident immediately jumped out and pulled Anderson clear of the horse. A doctor was called and Anderson was removed to St. Elizabeth hospital. The police department killed the horse, which had belonged to William Ashe and which Anderson had borrowed for the purpose of riding him in the parade of the Fall Style opening that evening. Anderson was returning the horse to its home at the time of the accident and had purposely taken a back street to avoid an accident.

The lights, fenders and the radiator of the Hilgenberg car were also somewhat damaged in the accident.

Kaukauna Organization Decides to Map City in Interest of Future Races

Kaukauna—At the regular monthly meeting of the Kaukauna Pigeon Racing club, held Friday evening in the council chambers at the Municipal building, it was decided by the club to raise its membership fee after Jan. 1 from $2 to $3.

Two new members were added to the racing committee. They were: Frank Helmke and Herbert Roeland. Other members of the committee are Frank Van Agtmael, chairman, Edward J. Ludtke and Leo Haessly.

A map of the city has been ordered that will show the differences in the distances of the lots of the various members of the club. The purposes of this map is to compute handicaps for the birds which must fly a greater distance after reaching the city following a race.

The secretary was instructed to order 1,000 bands bearing the inscription, Kaukauna Pigeon club. These bands are for identification if a bird is lost during a race.

Flying for this year is all over and there will be no more activities except the regular meetings until next year.

Kaukauna—Miss Amanda Hald entertained several friends at a 6 o'clock luncheon at her home, 106 Doty-st.

Mrs. Peter Metz entertained about 35 women at a 1 o'clock luncheon and bridge party Saturday afternoon at her home, 316 Taylor-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brill entertained a number of relatives and friends at a birthday celebration, Sunday, in honor of their daughter Laura of Milwaukee. Among those present were: Miss Mary and Edmund Brill of Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Miller of Poy Sippi, Mrs. Nicholas Stefan of Hortonville and Mr. and Mrs. William Pahnke and family of Kaukauna.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Catholic Order of Foresters, Holy Cross court, No. 369, will take place Monday evening in the north side Forester hall.

The Free and Accepted Masons will hold their regular semi-monthly meeting Monday evening in the Masonic hall.

MOVE COAL SUPPLY FROM CHURCH RUINS

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—Moving of the coal supply from the ruins of Most Precious Blood church to the basement of parish hall was completed by members of the congregation Saturday, when a large number gathered for this purpose at the site of the old church.

The supply of wood which was also stored in the church at the time of the fire will be moved next Saturday afternoon, when the members of the congregation are again asked to be present. All who find it possible are also requested to be present throughout the week, as there is a large number of small jobs which require completion before winter sets in.

H. S. GLEE CLUB BEGINNING WORK

Organization Will Try for Prizes in State Musical Contest This Season

Kaukauna—Extensive plans are being laid for an active year in glee club work in the high schools by the music supervisor, Miss Flora Hiese. On Thursday of last week the girls of last year's club held a meeting, and it was found that the following girls wished to continue with the musical work: Miss Zita Crevier, accompanist, Loretta Dreessen, Gretchen Dreessen, Helen Fahnke, Lucille Zink, Valerie Vaniehaven, Mildred Kobussen, Veronica O'Donnell, Orpha Esler, Helen Esler, Catherine Mayer, Marie Mayer, Cordell Runte, Blanche Jirkowic, Alice Burke, Dorothy Haas, Irene Sturm, Mathilda Killian, Florance Vogt, Elaine Conlon, Doris Knickerbocker and Elizabeth Derus.

The following girls were made new members as a result of the try outs Thursday evening: Mabel Look, Ruth Winge, Ruth Boruchek, Winona Reilly, Nedra Nickles, Alice Jirkowicz, Marion Hagman, Dorothy Goldin, Edna Esler, Ethel Fleshek and Florence Wodjenski.

Regular rehearsals will start Monday at 3:30, immediately after school. Sessions will be held every Monday and Wednesday. In addition to regular voice training, the girls will begin work on the following numbers: "The Curly Headed Baby," by Guitson, "Fate Moon," by Logan and "Snowflakes," by Gleicher. Work will be started on several numbers for commencement. According to Miss Hiese, Kaukauna High school will be well represented at the state music contests this year, and if hard work has anything to do with winning prizes, then Kaukauna will walk off with all of them.

The boy's glee club will have try-outs Tuesday evening after school.

NEW LONDON COPS REV. TIMMEL IS COUNTY TITLE BY DEFEATING IOLA

Double Header Is Won by Stuartmen 7-5 and 17-5—Season Now Is at an End

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—New London won the championship of Waupaca County Baseball league Sunday afternoon, when the Stuartmen defeated Iola in two games at the local field. The first of the double header resulted in the score of 7-5, while the second was a veritable slaughter, to the extent of 17-5. The batteries of the two teams were Sutcliffe and Holer for the Stuartmen, and Nelson and Wood and Hassler and Wood for Iola. Sutcliffe pitched the entire program for the locals, and ended up going stronger than when he started.

Clintonville played no league game Sunday. Sunday's games closed the schedule of the league for the year, leaving New London far in the lead of all her opponents. Clintonville came in second, Manawa third, and Iola ended up fourth.

MILL STOPS FOR ANNUAL REPAIRS

Most of Hatten Crew Is Kept Busy in Yards or Camps Until Logs Begin Coming

New London—Hatten sawmill has closed for its annual repairs, which it undergoes between seasons each year. The supply of logs which was on hand has been cut, and the mill will not reopen until a new supply begins to arrive from the Hatten camps, which are located in various parts of this state and Michigan. This will probably take up a period of about two months.

A large portion of the force is still maintained in the yards, while the remainder either is waiting for the reopening of the mill, or has been sent to the camps, which are now being put in shape for the winter's cut of logs.

FEDERAL TAX OFFICIAL AIDS NEW LONDON FOLK

New London—F. L. Gottschalk of Appleton, federal deputy collector of the bureau of internal revenue, spent the last week in this city aiding local residents in filing federal income tax reports. A large number came making this headquarters in the city makhi ghis headquarters in the city hall. He expects to again be in the city sometime in the near future, or when duties in his line call him here.

In case local residents desire his assistance in filing their returns, he stated that he can always be reached at Appleton, and that he will always be glad to oblige them. He said that in most cases people ought to consult with one of the federal men before making their reports, due to the many changes in the 1924 laws governing such reports. For instance, there is still a tax of 10 per cent on all admissions of over 50 cents which are charged for any kind of entertainment or exhibition. Autos for hire are also taxable, Mr. Gottschalk said.

The senior choir of Most Precious Blood church will meet for organization and practice at the parish hall Monday evening.

Norris-Spencer post of the American legion will give an oldtime dance in Legion hall Wednesday evening.

BUCKET BRIGADE STOPS BIG LOSS THRU FARM FIRE

Clintonville Chief Beats Truck to Blaze and Meets It on Return Trip Home

Clintonville—The Clintonville fire chief, Martin Lyons, received a distress call at 3:30 Thursday afternoon from the William Grossnick farm, near Zimpels bridge on the Wolf river, about 14 miles north of here. They were engaged in filling silo and a spark from the steam engine set the roof of a nearby machine shed on fire.

For a time it looked as if all the farm buildings were doomed, but the persistent and combined efforts of the fire and their neighbors saved what might have resulted in a $15,000 loss. Mr. Lyons speeded ahead of the four-wheel drive fire pumper and saw the fire under control soon after his arrival. He declared that he never saw a better bucket brigade than this. Some hauled water in barrels from the river while others kept pumps going. The damage amounts to about $100. While the fire department responded promptly and made the run in record time, they were met by the fire chief within a half mile of the scene and ordered to return.

A tourist's car taking gasoline Thursday noon at Block's oil station, started to move ahead and tore off the head of an oil pump. Evidently the emergency brake had not been set before the driver had stepped out. The nozzle on the hose caught and held tight to the tank of the car. The damage, already repaired, amounted to about $25. The car was owned by R. W. Blanchard, Milwaukee, who paid the damages.

J. E. Malik, who has been at the Mercy hospital Chicago for the last five weeks was to arrive home Saturday or Sunday.

Misses Ada and Loys Anthes left Friday morning for Chicago where they have accepted positions in the high school department of the American Correspondence school.

Miss Leota Williams has accepted a position as bookkeeper at the Block Filling station and will assume her duties Monday, Sept. 21. She was formerly with the Strobe Cheese Co. of this city.

A. A. Washburn, editor and manager of the Dairyman Gazette, gave away to all the school children of Clintonville tickets for Waupaca co fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dickman spent Wednesday at Symco with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Elsberg attended the Weynawega fair and visited the former's brother at Ogdensburg over the weekend.

ONEIDA LEGION POST NAMED FOR DOCTOR POWLESS

8,000 THROGGED GROUNDS AT FAIR OF CALUMET-CO

Oscar W. Broker Elected Commander—Post Is Presented With Charter

Oneida—State officers of the American legion attended the picnic at Oneida Sunday and helped to celebrate the presentation of the charter to the new American legion post, No. 178, to be known as the "Dr. Joseph H. Powless Post."

Dr. Powless was the first Oneida man to lose his life overseas during the World war.

The new officers of the post are Oscar W. Broker, commander; Philip Summers, vice commander; Zack Skendore, executive committee, and Guy Cornelius, chaplain.

J. H. McGillan of Green Bay gave an opening address. He is the oldest post member in Wisconsin. Frank J. Schneller, Neenah, gave an address on "Service in Peace Times." H. L. Plummer, Cadott, commander Wisconsin department of the American legion, presented the charter to the new post. Miss Blanche DeGroot and Violet Schlegel sang a duet entitled, "Our Uncle Sammy." The American Legion band of Kiel furnished the music. Of the 130 service men of Oneida, only 16 joined the legion, but others will join later. The first meeting will be at Chicago corners Saturday, Sept. 26, at 7:30.

Mrs. I. Nickles of Chippewa Falls spent a week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Bart Janz. Her sister, Mrs. L. Goffald, accompanied her home to spend two weeks.

Dr. C. M. Sickles of Tiffin, Ohio, spent last week with his mother, Mrs. A. S. Voss, and his two sisters, Mrs. F. Mann of De Pere, and Mrs. J. W. Cornelius. Dr. Sickles had just returned from Carlisle, Pa., training camp where he spent two weeks. He is a world war veteran.

WAUPACA WILL HEAR YOUNG BOB

Candidate for Senator Will Address Public Wednesday—Browne Funeral Held

Waupaca—Robert M. La Follette, Jr., will speak from the bandstand in Waupaca at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 23. Hand bills are being circulated with the announcement, some being distributed Friday at the Waupaca-co fair. The greatest political gathering that has assembled in the city in years is expected. Much speculation as to what influence Mr. La Follette's presence in the city will have on the vote on Sept. 23 is being made. The young candidate polled 27 votes more than Roy P. Wilcox last week and, with Francis E. McGovern and Daniel Woodward out, 164 votes will be changed next week.

Cash receipts at the Waupaca-co fair on Thursday, the big day, were in excess of the same day the previous years by the sum of $5.50. The total number in attendance could not be determined, according to Mr. Ewald, in charge of the gates. It was expected the total number attending would be in excess of the year previous.

RICHARDSON RETURNS

At the recent Methodist conference at Milwaukee, the Rev. F. C. Richardson was reappointed to the pulpit at Waupaca to which he came a year ago from Fecine.

Edward L. Browne, 35, prominent Wisconsin lawyer, died at the home of his daughter Mrs. C. H. Truesdell 702 S. Main-st. Friday afternoon. Mr. Browne was born in Grandville, N. Y., June 27, 1830. From 1854 to 1856 he practiced law in the city of Milwaukee coming to this city in 1856.

WEYAUWEGA HAS NEW M. E. PASTOR

The Rev. E. G. Saunderson Succeeds the Rev. H. D. Stone, Who Goes to Lamartine

Weyauwega—The Rev. H. D. Stone attended the Methodist Episcopal conference at Milwaukee and was appointed to serve at Lamartine, Rosendale and Rock River. The Rev. Mr. Stone and family have lived here several years. The Rev. E. G. Saunderson has been appointed to this community, Lind Center and Poy Sippi. The Rev. S. E. Lewis will have his parish at Milladore and Iola again and the Rev. Paul Lewis, who has been at Manitowoc, will be at a new parish. The two latter are former Weyauwega men.

The village has purchased the two arterial stop signs which have been on trial and has put up more signs. The streets were decorated for a week with the flag system installed by the local boy scouts. The merchants purchased the flags and the boy scouts see to it that they are put out and taken in at the proper time.

Albert Joch, 82, of Seattle, Wash., is visiting relatives here. He lived here 62 years ago and has not been back here since until this week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Jones and children have returned from a visit at Fort Sheridan.

Miss Louise Peterke of Oshkosh, has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chick for a week.

Mrs. Elmer Boettcher of Appleton, visited her mother, Mrs. Louis Lange, during fair week.

Delbert Cady brought to town a cornstalk measuring 14 feet 2 inches. A stereoscopic lecture is to be put on at the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Weed of Hartland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ritchie over the weekend. They were accompanied on their return home by their daughters, who have been visiting here.

Edward Lange of Madison, spent a few days with his mother here and then left for California.

Mrs. Fanny Ferguson has returned to Chicago after a month's stay at her home here.

Mrs. G. Kosanke is visiting at Sheboygan and other places in the southern part of the state.

Mrs. Bozille and daughter, Mrs. Ida Nelson of Appleton, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Keeney this week.

STAGE AND SCREEN

Fighting the Flames, which comes to the New Bijou theatre today for a run of three days, has a very remarkable cast assembled to play the exciting fire story which forms the basis of the picture.

The lead is played by William Haines who will be well remembered for his success in The Midnight Express, another action picture depicting railroad life. With Mr. Haines is Dorothy Devore, who is a great favorite with filmgoers. David Torrence is the brother of Ernest Torrence of Covered Wagon fame, but happens to be a very excellent actor in his own right. Sheldon Lewis needs no words. He is a villain and every one knows him for those parts.

The rest of the cast includes Frankie Darro who though a little boy plays one of the largest parts in the production. Charlie Murray takes one of his inimitable character parts. Max Davidson and William Welsh are the other two well known actors who also play in the cast.

CORINNE GRIFFITH HERE IN NEW DRAMA

Admirers of the enchanting Corinne Griffith have an opportunity of seeing that talented actress in a temptingly dramatic role this week at the Elite, where First National's "The Marriage Whirl" has just begun a 3 day engagement.

Never has the beautiful Corinne enacted a more trying role, and never has her triumph been greater.

Foremost in her support are Kenneth Harlan, Harrison Ford and Nita Naldi, each of whom contributes a striking characterization. New York and Paris form the background of the picture, which is a screen transplantation of the J. Hartley Manners stage offering. "The National Anthem" With Kenneth Harlan, Miss Griffith portrays an American couple typical of hundreds who annually fall under the soul sapping spell of the pleasure-mad French capital, where the rising sun alone brings a respite from revelry. Clinging faithfully to a husband caught in the whirlpool of Parisian night life, the heroine fights a vain battle to save him, only to be forced in the end to turn herself for succor to the staunch friend who once had hoped to win her hand. The latter is skillfully etched by Harrison Ford.

And the soulless interloper, a spectacle with which Paris abounds, is presented with uncanny fidelity by Nita Naldi.

For a real insight into the vagaries of Parisian night life, see this latest First National picture, so ably directed by Al Santell and cleverly acted by Miss Griffith and her cohorts.

DAVIS SLAMS SEPARATE AIR SERVICE ARGUMENT

any "muzzling" of army officers in the expression of their individual opinions. In your constructive program the war department will cordially cooperate. I personally have long felt that such an inquiry is essential.

PRaises MEN

"At this hearing I will confine myself to general statements of policy, leaving the details to be elaborated by the military and technical experts. "In general I believe that our personnel is at least equal in skill, hardiness and bravery to that of any other nation. The equipment is inadequate in numbers and part of it, built during the war, is in a condition of deterioration which is gradually improving. This condition is due, solely to lack of money, and can be remedied only by money. That our technical and research work is satisfactory is evidenced by the fact that the army air service holds an extraordinarily large percentage of world records in aviation.

"The efficiency of the whole service was strikingly shown by the success of the round the world flight, a triumph of organization as well as of flying skill. Training is entirely in the hands of the flying service itself, under broad general policies, and the chief of the air service will discuss this subject later. A detailed statement of the current appropriations will also be given. The whole government appropriations are insufficient to carry out the approved war department program, but that situation exists in other services as well. Within the department, the air service appropriation in recent years has been consistently favored, sometimes at the expense of other services. To sum up, after a fairly intimate association with them for three years, I do not hesitate to assert that our air service officers and men are competent, efficient, loyal and patriotic.

DEFINES POLICY
"In peace, the primary mission of the air service, as of all the other services, is to carry out the injunction of our first commander in chief, George Washington: 'in time of peace, prepare for war.' This is accomplished by: (1)—Developing its personnel and material to the highest efficiency and assisting in the department of the air service branches of the national guard and the organized reserves; (2)—Preparing plans of action for the mobilization of personnel and procurement of material in accordance with mobilization and war plans of the war department. The secondary mission in peace is to promote in every possible way the welfare, progress and prosperity of our country.

"In war, the mission of the air service is: (As a fighting arm, in combination with the other fighting arms to win the victory and bring about peace as quickly, as effectively and as cheaply in lives and money as is humanly possible.

Reviewing the problems of commercial aviation, Davis said the air service "within its appropriations is doing all it properly can do" to aid its development.

TWO PRINCIPLES
"I believe," he continued, "that there are two fundamental principles for national policy which will most effectively promote the early establishment of a self-supporting aeronautical industry.

"Indirect government aid to commercial aviation by the development of technical equipment and methods suitable for commercial air transportation, by the establishment of necessary ground facilities along principal traffic lanes of the coast and by contracting for the carriage of mail, will prove more economical and permanently effective than a form of direct subsidy.

"The placing of the administration of purely civil aviation under a military department is an economic unsound practice and is basically

THREE MOTORCOPS NAB 1 SPEEDER IN 2 DAYS

A quiet weekend must have been enjoyed by Outagamie county motorcops, only one speeder, E. C. Lowe, Neenah, was nabbed during the two days. Lowe was clipping off a pace of 48 miles an hour Saturday in the town of Kaukauna, when Alfred Dunn, county motorcop, caught up to him and told him to appear in court Monday morning. Lowe paid $13.20.

ROBBERS LOOT HARDWARE STORE AT BLACK CREEK

Marauders Break Open Safe to Take $150—Steal Guns and Ammunition

Gaining entrance through a basement window in the rear of the Froehlich-Gehrke hardware store at Black Creek, burglars robbed the store of money and other articles valued at about $400. Henry Froehlich, one of the proprietors, visited the store at about 11 o'clock Friday night. The robbery committed after that hour.

Tools from the store were used to open the safe, from which $50 in cash and a $100 liberty bond was taken. Besides the money and liberty bond taken from the safe, the robbers took $5 in small change from the cash register, two revolvers, a .45 shot gun, a number of razors, flashlights, pocket knives and Winchester shells and all the watches that were on hand.

Two detectives are working on the robbery.

BUILDING PERMITS

Building permits authorizing the construction of three garages at an estimated cost of $650 were issued Saturday by George Peotter, building inspector.

The permits were:

Amelia Goetz, garage at 1820 N. Durkee-st.

Charles Schrimpf, garage at 515 E. Maple-st.

Henry Staedt, garage at 1526 N. Alvin-st.

Military and civil aviation should cooperate closely but should be administered separately.

Turning to a discussion of the relation of the air service to the war department and to the army general staff, Mr. Davis said he would leave an explanation of the latter phase to the chief of staff.

"In the relation to airplane manufacture the war department is convinced that a strong aeroplane industry is vital to the national defense.

NEED INDUSTRIES
"We must have a sufficient number of qualified manufacturers of air craft to design and build planes of the latest type in sufficient quantities in case we are forced war."

Discussing the possible wartime needs for planes, Mr. Davis continued, "It has been thoroughly understood that there would be necessary a great enlargement of manufacturing facilities which do not exist.

"The requirements of the air service in time of war have been computed as carefully as possible and have been reduced to terms of raw material.

Mr. Davis pointed out that the army navy joint board had turned over the development of rigid dirigibles to the navy but stated that the "approved plan for the organization of the air service provides for a certain amount of lighter than air craft which it is believed will be of value in military operations."

The department's policy for the organization and development of the air service, he said, was set forth in the Lassiter board report, a copy of which would be furnished the board.

"It is the unanimous opinion," he added, "of officers who have successfully directed the combined operations of all arms during the world war that the army cannot operate efficiently without an air service and further; that there is no mission for a separate air service which cannot be executed by the army air service."

30 DAY TERM FOR CLEAVER WIELDER

Nick Gostas Sent to Workhouse When He Enters Plea of Nolle Contendere

Nick Gostas, who swung a meat cleaver down upon the head of his partner Charles Williams two months ago, causing Williams a several weeks sojourn at the St. Elizabeth hospital, will have a chance to use his cleaver swinging ability freely for the next month, but he will be equipped with a hammer instead of a meat cleaver for he was sentenced to 30 days in the workhouse by Judge Berg in municipal court Monday morning. Gostas entered a plea of "nolo contendere" meaning he would not plead and permitted the court to determine his fate.

Gostas struck Williams with a meat axe, after the two had engaged in a quarrel over financial matters pertaining to their former restaurant at 113 N. Oneida-st.

25 DELEGATES ATTEND MISSION CONFERENCE

About 35 delegates from Kaukauna, Sheboygan, Kohler and Manitowish and about 15 persons from Appleton attended the fall institute of the Women's Missionary society of the Sheboygan class which was held Saturday at First Reformed church.

The institute opened at 10 o'clock Saturday morning with a short devotional service led by the Rev. E. P. Nuss. Miss Gertrude Hanks of Sheboygan, classical president, gave an address on the early history of the reformed church and the work of the Women's Missionary society.

Plans of work for the coming year discussed were: "To foster the spirit of stewardship in our societies, to increase the interest in Thank offerings; That we continue in our efforts to create variety in our programs. That we as members of the Women's Missionary society of the Sheboygan class interest especially the young people in the spirit of missions, by means of books, plays, pageants, etc." To emphasize life membership.

A luncheon was served to delegates and local members at 12 o'clock. The meeting adjourned in the afternoon with a consecration address by the Rev. Paul Grosshuesch of Sheboygan.

EAGLE GROWTH DESCRIBED TO NEENAH AERIE

George Strine Tells Neenah Men That Lodge is Growing Because It Serves Well

Neenah — George Strine of York, Pa., gave a review of the growth of the Eagle lodge at the opening meeting of the Neenah Aerie Saturday evening, declaring that in the last two years the Fraternal Order of Eagles has grown from 450,000 to nearly 600,000 members, scattered all over the country in 1700 lodges. The first Aerie was instituted in Seattle, Wash., in the winter of 1898.

"More members," he continued, "have come into the fold because of the sick benefits than for any other reason. When an Eagle falls ill, the Aerie pays him a substantial sum of money weekly for as long as he is disabled up to 12 weeks in any one year. In most cases the lodge employs a competent physician to attend him, and not only the member in his illness, but his wife and any minor child.

"Since its organization 27 years ago, there has been paid out in sick benefits to members $2,153,538. For funeral benefits $5,291,933, and for medical services $8,610,727—a total of $14,046,255."

"Next to being sick and without funds," he said, "the most pitiable plight in life is to be old and without funds. The poor house looms sinisterly for more than two million of humble workers who have never been paid more than enough to meet the simplest daily needs and who as they approach 45, 55, 65 see the door of the factory, the shop and the office closing, inch by inch, on their feet-drawn faces.

He cited three states which have the old age pension laws. Montana, Pennsylvania and Nevada and in 26 other states bills are pending. He brought up the workingmen's compensation and mothers' pension which the Eagles advocated as just and they are now on the statute books of every state.

"This is a patriotic order, pledged to serve the community and the Nation as well as itself," he continued. "The Eagle and the Flag are our symbols. Liberty, Truth, Justice and Equality are our principles. When in 1913, the United States mobilized for war, 50,000 members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles joined the ranks. In fervent loyalty the Grand Aerie met and voted unanimously to pay the dues of all the members in the service so that they and particularly their families might be kept under the protection of the order. And then it created a great patriotic fund, from which $1,000 has been paid to the dependent wife, mother or child of every soldier or sailor who then or now lays down his life as the result of wounds or disease incurred in that war."

He reported that 1,300 members in the service have died, the gratuities paid their families now have reached a total of one and a half million dollars.

CONFUSED WOMAN DRIVES ON WALK AND HITS GIRL

Child Dragged Under Car and Dropped in Gutter but Escapes Serious Injury

Neenah — Loraine Wagner, 7, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Wagner, escaped serious injuries Saturday afternoon when she was run down by a car driven by Mrs. C. H. Brown, Mrs. Brown was proceeding south on Commercial-st and in order to avoid congestion at the Commercial-st and Wisconsin-ave crossing, decided to turn into the alley south of Mack hotel. As she turned she was met by a horse and buggy coming out. In attempting to turn back onto Commercial-st again, she ran her car upon the walk for a distance of about 50 feet before getting back into the street again.

In the excitement Mrs. Brown apparently stepped on the accelerator and shot ahead at high speed. In front of the Charles Schultz & Son cigar store she ran into the little girl who was with her mother, Mrs. Wagner. They did not see the approaching car until the little girl was knocked down. She fell between the four wheels and was dragged along the walk until she fell into the gutter when the car turned off the walk. No bones were broken and the child suffered very few bruises.

Others in the shoot were: R. Bart, who secured a total of 109; J. Meyer, 107; A. Jones, 107; E. Miller, 98; H. Sherman, 90; E. Johnson, 89 and H. Schwartz, 61. Milk Contains Every Element Necessary to Nourish Human Life

It contains protein, the one essential element needed to rebuild the body cells which every day are being destroyed. It contains many minerals, chief of which is lime, which it furnishes in greater abundance than any other one food. Lime is the element which is needed to make good straight bones and firm white teeth. Milk contains fats which furnish the body both energy and heat. Milk contains carbohydrates, in the form of sugar, which is the chief source of energy. In addition to these food elements milk has all three vitamins—A, B, and C, without which body suffers from serious nutritional unbalance.

WRISTON WON'T BE HERE UNTIL AFTER OCT. 1

New President of College Will Finish Book He Is Writing
Before Coming Here

Dr. Henry Merritt Wriston, president-elect of Lawrence college, who originally was expected to arrive in September to assume his new office probably will not come here until after Oct. 1.

According to information received at the office of Dr. W. S. Naylor, acting president of the institution, the new president who succeeds the late Dr. Samuel Plantz will come to Appleton early in October, but the exact date is still indefinite.

Dr. Wriston is engaged in writing a book, and his contract with the publishers to complete the work will keep him at his task a little longer. He is at present making his home at Springfield, Mass. Earlier in the summer he had a part in the management of the Institute of Politics at Williamstown, Mass., which is a meeting for prominent political economists each year. He has finished his work at Wesleyan university, Middletown, Conn., where he held the chair of history and was secretary of the institution's $3,000,000 endowment fund campaign.

NAYLOR IN CHARGE
Dr. Naylor will continue in charge until after the arrival of the new president. Arrangements soon will be underway for his reception. The inauguration will not take place until late autumn, but Dr. Wriston will assume the duties of his office the latter part of October.

In addition to Dr. Wriston's advent changes in the faculty include: Miss Lytton, New York, succeeding Miss Mary Louise Brown as dean of women; Miss Florence Lutz, Boston, succeeding Prof. F. W. Orr in the department of public speaking; Dr. Waldo F. Mitchell, Chicago, succeeding Alfred C. Buehler in the department of commerce; Miss Jessie Mae Pate, succeeding Miss Marguerite Mainsounat as French instructor; Miss Blanche Burrows, East Creek, succeeding Miss Lora Miller as physical instructor; Ralph E. Sullenik, succeeding Miss Louise Cochran as zoology instructor; Miss Florence D. Souder, succeeding Miss Eulalia Westenau as chemistry instructor; Dr. Rufus M. Baggs, who was in Europe on a year's leave of absence, also will be back on the faculty.

Miss Lytton, now dean of women, is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan university, and holds a master's degree from Columbia university. She has done extensive work among college women, both in America and Japan. She served as Y. M. C. A. secretary at Ohio Wesleyan university. At Tokyo she was representative of the cooperating committee for Women's college in the orient. Miss Lytton whom she succeeded resigned in June to become dean of women at the American university at Washington.

STUDENTS ARRIVING
Students are arriving daily in increasing numbers preparatory to opening of the 1925-1926 college year next week. Fraternity houses are beginning to take on life. Reservations for dormitories are considerably ahead of the same period last year. Brokenaw hall had 50 per cent more reservations on Sept. 1 than on the same day a year ago.
Predictions point to a bigger enrollment than last year. The number of freshmen registered was 315 on Tuesday, whereas a year ago on the same day the number was far below 300. Last year's freshman class of 335 was smaller than that of other years, but a greater number of upper classmen returned, making an enrollment of 390. This year's freshman class enrollment may reach 350 or 360.
All is in readiness for opening of school Tuesday. That day and Wednesday will be registration days for upper classmen. On Thursday class assignments will be announced. Friday

ASK VALLEY RESERVES TO OPPOSE ARMY CUT

Countrywide opposition to a cut in the army appropriation for the next fiscal year is urged in a letter received by Lieut. P. O. Kelcher from the Reserve Officers Association of the United States. Mr. Kelcher is president of Fox River Valley chapter of the association and as such is urged to call local residents to prevent such a move on the part of congress.

Excerpts from the platforms of the Republican and Democratic parties accompany the letter, showing how each group favors economy in the war department but no reduction of defense beyond a safety point. President Coolidge also is quoted as saying the nation's defense should not be curtailed.

Mr. Kelcher will submit this correspondence to the valley chapter at its next meeting.

Corbett Attends Festivities
Honoring Opening of Community Building There

Hugh G. Corbett, secretary of the chamber of commerce, was in Plymouth Thursday evening to attend the formal opening of a new community building there by the Plymouth Association of Commerce. He was accompanied by Mrs. Corbett and his daughter, Cathryn.

The association is holding three days of festivities in honor of the opening, ending with a program and address Saturday evening. Two floors of a building in the downtown district have been leased by the business men and remodeled. The first floor contains an attractively furnished waiting room at the front for use of the public, especially the rural shoppers; an assembly room which can be used for meetings, dinners and dances; a kitchen with good facilities, and lavatories. The hall will accommodate 150 at a dinner.

Rooms on the second floor are tables with billiard, pool and card tables and provide a place for recreation. Only those holding memberships in the association are eligible to use the quarters and no gambling is permitted. Attractive decorations have been featured all through the rooms.

Community singing, numbers by soloists and addresses are featured on each evening's program.

day will be All College day when the freshmen and sophomore classes will settle their annual grudge. The usual stunts include a tug of war, a sack race along the lines of a push ball contest, a sack Houdini contest and other events.

RAILROADS REPORTING BIG GAINS IN TRAFFIC

Every week and month brings fresh evidence that the principal railroads entering Wisconsin are enjoying their best year since about 1916.

Figures compiled for the first eight months of this year show that both the Milwaukee and Northwestern roads are running far ahead of last year in the number of cars of revenue freight handled over their lines. The St. Paul road is over 284,800 cars ahead of the first eight months of 1924. The Northwestern road has a gain of 49,140 cars.

From Jan. 1 to Sept. 1, last year, the St. Paul road handled a total of 1,055,678 cars of revenue freight as compared with 1,320,491 cars during the same period this year. Comparative figures for the Northwestern show 1,364,327 cars handled in 1924, compared with 1,414,067 cars during the first eight months of the current year.

BUILD NEW BARN TO HOUSE RACE HORSES

The Winnebago-co fair, which will occur at Oshkosh Sept. 22 to 25 inclusive, is having an unusually rapid growth. A new speed barn is being rushed to completion to accommodate the overflow of race horses which are assured by the big list of entries. Last year an addition of 100 feet was built to the huge grandstand, but even then it failed to provide sufficient seating space for the large numbers of fair patrons who wished to see the program of races and free attractions.

This year's program includes a horse pulling contest, similar to that held at the Seymour fair. This will take place on Tuesday, which is Automobile day. Every car and driver will be admitted free on that day, it is announced. There will be three nights of spectacular fireworks. Ten big circus acts have been engaged.

This half-inch blanket of Balsam-Wool keeps your house warm in winter, cool in summer and saves 1/4 to 1/2 of your fuel bill. Balsam-Wool is practically the equivalent of sheep's wool in insulating efficiency.

And Read these 12 Facts about Warm Houses

- 1 There is no longer any mystery about having your house warm in winter and cool in summer.
- 2 The modern house is kept warm in winter by keeping the heat in.
- 3 It is kept cool in summer by keeping the heat out.
- 4 This is done by means of the new scientific discovery called heat insulation.
- 5 When you come to consider grades of heat insulation, you will find Balsam-Wool preferred by builders who demand maximum efficiency at minimum cost.
- 6 Balsam-Wool is a blanket of clean, sanitary wood fibre. It is 1/2 inch thick. It stops as much heat loss as 97 sheets of ordinary building paper; or 1 1/2 inches of pine lumber; or 8 inches of solid brick; or 17 inches of solid plaster.
- 7 Balsam-Wool keeps the heat in so well that it cuts 1/4 to 1/2 off your coal bill.
- 8 By insulating your house with Balsam-Wool you can reduce the size of your heating plant 20 per cent—a saving well worth considering.
- 9 A house insulated with Balsam-Wool is free from drafty corners and cold floors. The family is happier and healthier the year 'round.
- 10 Balsam-Wool is easy and cheap to put in. The carpenter nails it into the walls before the lath and plaster are put on.
- 11 It is equally important to insulate your roof or second floor ceiling with Balsam-Wool. Sixty per cent of the heat waste in houses is through the roof.
- 12 Balsam-Wool heat insulation really costs you nothing. It pays for itself with the fuel it saves.

There is a difference in the materials used for insulation.

Real insulation should not be confused with the long established practice of applying a layer of building paper under the shingles and over the outside sheathing.

In practical insulating efficiency, Balsam-Wool, for instance, is the equivalent of 97 sheets of ordinary building paper—or 8 inches of brick or 17 inches of plaster.

Therefore—when someone tells you a house is insulated—find out what with.

If Balsam-Wool insulated—then you will know it is properly insulated.

Balsam-Wool is a Weyerhaeuser product.

The FLAPPER WIFE

by Beatrice Burton © 1925 NEA SERVICE, INC.

She curled herself up like a kitten in a big chair in the sunny corner by the windows. She took out her vanity case and looked at herself in the little mirror. Then her eyes traveled to Miss Briggs' face.

No—Susan Briggs at her best couldn't hold a candle to her when it came to look. Her eyes were lovely, but there were fine crows' feet at the corners of them. And there were shadows at the corners of Miss Briggs' mouth that would be deep, carved wrinkles in a few years.

Was it possible that Dick was in love with this plain little woman who was at least eight years older than his beautiful young wife?

But perhaps he, had tired of her just because she was his wife, Gloria thought gloomily. She had heard May Seymour often say in her flip, bitter way that no man loved his wife after the first flush of married life was gone.

May Seymour! She of all women, had least reason for saying a thing like that! She must have known all along how desperately Dr. John cared for her.

A folded newspaper lay on the sill beside Gloria. She picked it up. It was full of the ugly details of Dr. John's suicide. On the first page was a large photograph of May in a plumed picture hat.

Poor May! She was fair game for any gossip today! Everybody's tongue was wagging about her.

What a life she was facing! For years and years and years people would remember that her husband had killed himself because of her love affair with another man. . . the story would hound her to the very day she died.

No matter where she went, the tale would follow her. No matter in what remote corner of the world she tried to hide, there would always be some one who knew all about her. For there always was somebody. . . People never let you forget your shame.

Gloria wondered if Jim Carewe was worth the misery that was waiting for May was any man. . . any happiness. . . worth such misery?

And what would Jim do now? Would he marry May when the scandal had quieted down? . . . Gloria doubted it. Jim wasn't the "marring kind."

And suppose he did marry May? Wouldn't the memory of Dr. John always be between them, like a ghostly hand keeping them apart? Of course it would. . .

He hadn't been able to keep his wife away from Jim Carewe, while he lived. But now that he was dead, it would probably be easy enough. "Ugh!" Gloria shivered at the thought of the power the dead can have over the living.

Miss Briggs looked up at her.

She had cleared away her lunch, and was reading a thin little book. "I suppose," she said to Gloria, "you've been reading that piece in the paper about Dr. Seymour's suicide. Terrible thing, wasn't it?"

"Horrible," Gloria agreed. It was a relief to talk about it to anyone. "Why do you suppose he did such a thing. . . a successful doctor, still young, and with everything to live for?"

Miss Briggs let her hands fall idly on her desk. "Did you ever know why Dr. Seymour and his wife didn't get along?"

"Perhaps he didn't have everything," she said very quietly. "No body has everything he wants in this world, nobod! And besides, I've heard that Dr. Seymour and his wife didn't get along very well together."

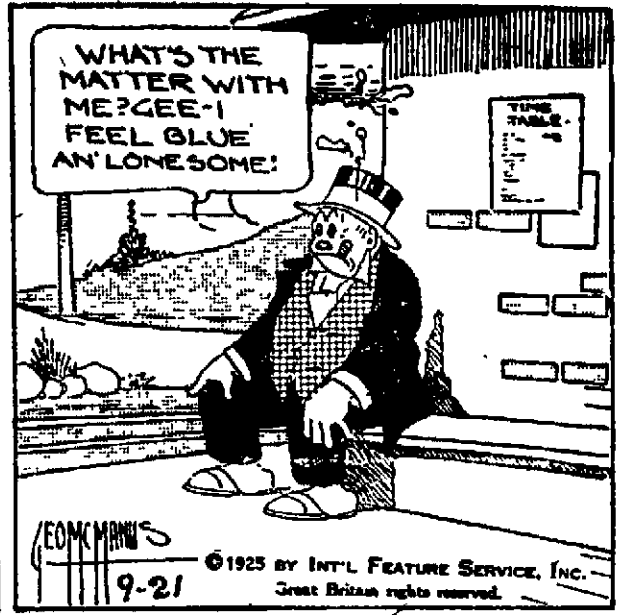

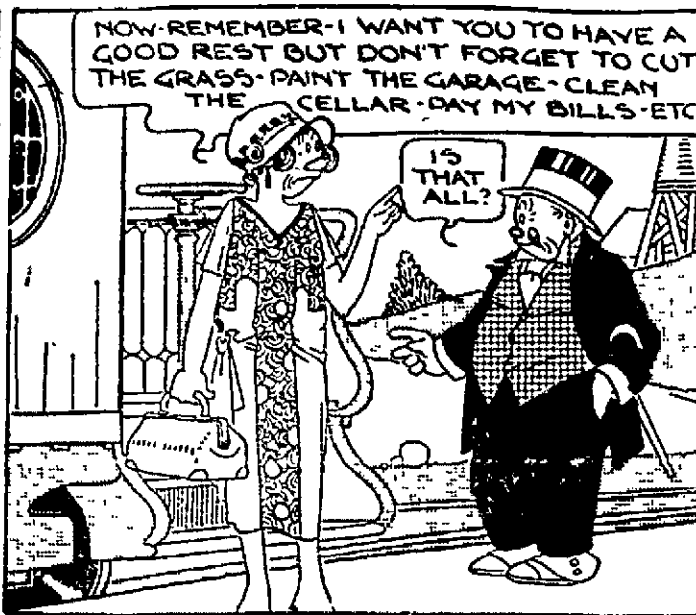

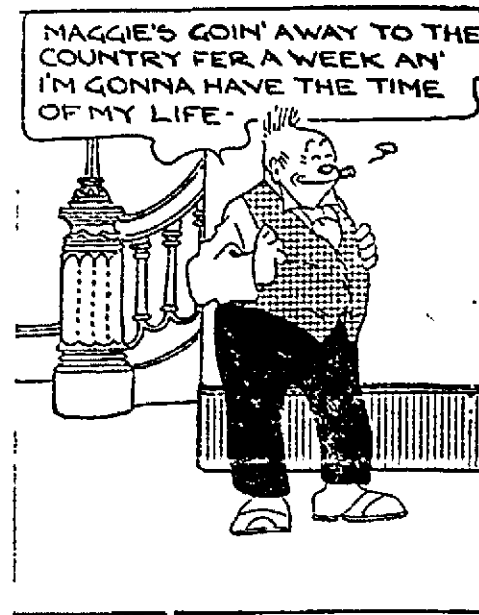

Now who had told her that. . . Dick? Oh, no, Mrs. O'Hara of course! She was Miss Briggs' sister as well as Dr. John's "boss" nurse. She had probably known all about his troubles, Gloria said to herself. These nurses, they found out everybody's business. . .

"Miss Briggs," Gloria asked abruptly. "Did you ever know why Dr. Seymour and his wife didn't get along?"

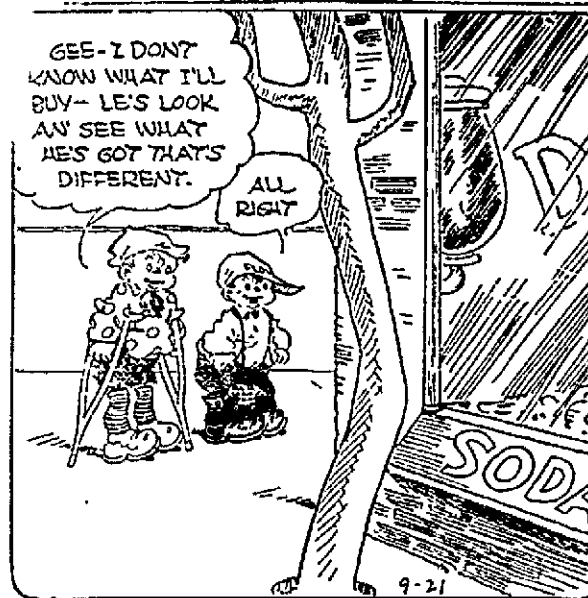

Miss Briggs opened her candid eyes. "Why, yes," she answered. "There was some sort of love affair between Mrs. Seymour and a Mr. Carewe, wasn't there? I've heard there was."

Gloria shook her head.

CALIFORNIA BUNGALOWS FIND FAVOR IN BRAZIL

Sao Paulo, Brazil.—(AP)—American films have popularized the American bungalow, with its built-in furniture and many modern conveniences, to the people of Brazil. Forty-five per cent of the new dwellings going up in this city at the present time are copied from the well advertised California product.

The only difficulty encountered is the general absence of a servant's room; all middle class Brazilians have servants, due to the cheapness of labor.

The cornerstone of the original capital building in Washington was laid by George Washington Sept. 18, 1793.

HAGEN, SIXTY WIN FROM WALSH AND DICKINSON

BILLY GETS 1ST HOLE IN ONE ON NEW LOCAL LINKS

Feat of Crack Milwaukeean on 160-yd. 17th Hole Puts Match on Ice for Invaders

With Walter Hagen, golfer deluxe, and Billy Sixty, star state amateur, one up at the end of the 16th hole in an exhibition match against Ken Dickinson, state amateur champ, and Frank Walsh, Butte Des Morts pro, Sunday afternoon at Butte Des Morts Country club course, and with the local main shooting good golf, Sixty put the game on ice for the visitors and practically ended the match when he drove 160 yards on the 17th hole to sink his ball for a hole in one. The ball landed on the green and rolled straight for the cup as if drawn by invisible strings. Billy was the first man up on the hole. Far for the hole is 3.

Walsh saved the match for the local crew on two holes and also lost an easy hole to the invaders. Walsh and Dickinson shot fine golf, however, and the star visitors playing high class form all the way to win. All four players kept the gallery excited with excellent shots during the entire match. Many of the drives were near perfect and most of the holes with the exception of two birdies and the hole in one shot were made in short order.

HAGEN'S DRIVE FEATURE
Hagen's drives were the feature of the play. The big golfer took his time and coolly shot the pellet for great distances, dropping a perfect shot for 350 yards on one 255 yard hole and shooting many over 300 yards. He got one tough one however, when he drove high on the 12th hole and a gust of wind coming up at the moment drove his ball into a creek costing him an extra try. Bad winds all afternoon spoiled many a nice shot and put the balls in the rough. Hagen's mashe iron drives for which he is justly noted, were much in evidence during the play.

GET EVEN START
Both pairs started off by having the first three holes, taking them 1, 2, 4 and 4 respectively. On the fourth hole Dickinson shot into the rough. Sixty went into the crowd and Walsh and Hagen dropped birdies, the first of the afternoon to keep the teams all square. On the fifth hole Sixty drove par way down a hill and Hagen put his ball in the bunker, but both showed what gives them their reputations by coming out nice and taking a par 3. Hagen making a nice backshot, Walsh missed the cup by less than a quarter inch on his second shot and the local pair were forced to call another hole even.

VISITORS TAKE LEAD
On the 6th hole, the visitors took the first lead of the match. When Hagen sunk his ball for a 4, while the other men got a 5. The wind carried Walsh, Hagen and Sixty's balls into the rough on the 7th but all holed out well. Dickinson also got into the rough, but a nice shot from behind a bush kept him ahead.

VISITORS LEAD AT HALF
Dickinson's drive on the 7th was perfect and landed on the green from where he got a birdie 2 a few moments later to square the match once more. On the 8th hole all the players drove for at least 300 yards. Hagen's drive going at about 340 yards. Hagen missed a birdie 2 by a fraction of an inch and the men believed the hole at 4 par. In the 9th Walsh got his first bad drive of the day, going into a bunker. Hagen came through with a 4 and the visitors ended the first half of the battle, 1 up. Hagen's drives were getting more perfect all the time.

1 UP ON 16TH
Dickinson just missed a nice 3 on the 10th hole and the two teams were forced to be content with a 4 par. Again Dickinson missed a close 3 on the 11th and Walsh squared the hole for the local at 4. Hagen lost a chance to take more of a lead on the 12th when his drive fell into a creek costing him a shot. This wiped the big smile off his genial face for an instant, but it came back when he got a nice one on the green on next try. Walsh missed a birdie 2 by a fraction of an inch and the local pair were forced to call another hole even.

On the 13th, the duos took a 3 after Walsh's drive. Out of the rough after a hunt for his ball, A. Lenz put by Walsh squared things again on the 14th hole, but after Walsh had missed a short putt on the 15th, Sixty took a 4 to put his "cum 1 up as all the rest took 5's. Walsh's bird shot missed by a fraction and his fourth putt did the same.

Walsh saved the match on the 16th when he came through with a birdie 3 after Hagen had sunk a par 3 putt for a 2. Then came the hole in one for Sixty and the match was over. Both duos took 4 for the final hole of the day.

Following are the cards:
HAGEN—(out) 4 4 4 3 5 4 1 1—36
(in) 5 5 4 4 5 3 5 3—38—74
SIXTY—(out) 1 1 4 5 1 5 3 3—34

OSHKOSH HIGH CUTS DOWN ON SCRIMMAGE

Oshkosh—The Oshkosh high school football team will do little scrimmaging this fall in preparation for the games on its schedule. The men, however, will spend unlimited time on the drill of fundamentals and in squad practice. The ban on frequent scrimmaging will reduce the danger of serious injuries to a minimum.

"Y" NET SQUAD WHIPS WAUPACA

13-year Old Youth Stars for Losers as Locals Take 2 Doubles Matches to Win

With two youngsters in their teens playing a leading role, the Waupaca city tennis team forced the Appleton "Y" M. C. A. netters to play superior tennis to cop the second of two inter-city tournaments Saturday afternoon at the local "Y" courts. The local squad won in the final match of the afternoon taking both doubles matches after the four single frays had been tied 2-2. At Waupaca earlier in the season the first meet between the two teams had ended in a tie when each copped two singles and a doubles match. Saturday's win gave Appleton the edge for the year.

13-YEAR-OLD BOY STARS
The work of 13-year-old Myron "Mike" Nelson, was the feature of the afternoon. The youngster, who looks like the class of northern Wisconsin net circles with a few more years of experience, outplayed the veteran J. W. Clippinger, a Lawrence college professor and a former college player, to cop two straight single sets. He kept Clippinger on his toes the entire match and the local man was outplayed most of the way by the nice shots and clever placements of the youth. In the doubles, paired with Peter Holtz, Waupaca justice of the peace and the team coach, he lost two tough sets to a local squad. The doubles combination of Nelson and Holtz consisted of players of the ages of 13 and 55, two wide extremes of tennis. Another star of the Waupaca team, Gordon Anderson, age 15 beat an older opponent in the singles and played nice tennis.

LANDIS, POWER COP
Landis and Power starred for Appleton, turning in neat wins in the singles from their Waupaca opponents and helping win the doubles. All the local men played nice games, however. Scores of the matches showed that Power (A) beat Holtz (W), 7-5, 6-1; Anderson (W) beat Hantschel (A), 6-2, 6-4; Landis (A) beat Tom Brown (W), 7-5, 6-1; Nelson (W) beat Clippinger (A), 6-4, 6-4. In the doubles Power and Hantschel (A) beat Nelson and Holtz (W), 6-4, 6-3, and Clippinger and Landis (A) beat Anderson and Brown (W) 6-3, 6-4.

GOLF As Champions Play It

Is it a good thing for a player to be constantly striving to drive long distances?

BY BOBBY CRICKSHANK
One of America's Greatest Players
This is the greatest sin in golf today. There are many golfers who would really be good players, but they can never see where a well-timed and controlled shot will travel almost as far as one in which they use most of the strength. The well-timed shot is invariably down the fairway—two out of three times. The other kind of shot will land in trouble two out of three times. The mistake of trying for long distances does not end on the tee. It goes down into the other clubs. If a player is one of these long hitters on the tee, he will surely be seen using iron clubs with which he has to keep hitting with all his strength. Next thing he begins to tire and his chances are gone. My idea is to hit within one's own limits. Do not hit the ball with your last ounce of strength. Be content with what comes to you in a natural and easy way.

Appleton, Fond du Lac Battle To 14-Inning Tie, 4-4

MANY SECTIONAL GRID BATTLES ON BIG 10 SCHEDULE

Six Western Conference Teams Play Big Battles; Chicago Maroons Have Three

Chicago—Big Ten university football teams are going in stronger for sectional games this fall than they have done in quite a string of years. For virtually every member of the Western Conference has at least one tilt scheduled with a school from another sector. Some even have two, while one boasts three such frays. In a word, Big Ten eleven are due to clash with opponents from the east, south and far west. The inter-division battles will be sprinkled throughout the campaign, starting with the opening games and lasting until the final frays. Chicago, or Stag's Maroons, if you prefer, have three such clashes on the books, meeting Kentucky, Penn and Dartmouth. All but the Quaker tilt will be staged on the home lot. Iowa tackles a pair in Arkansas and Southern California, traveling out to the Pacific coast for the latter bout. In U. S. C. the Hawks will meet a team coached by their old mentor, Howard Jones. It ought to develop into one of the biggest games of the season.

Illinois will put "Red" Grange on display for the first time before an eastern crowd when the Zuppke eleven clashes with Penn at Franklin field. Michigan is down to play host to the Navy at Ann Arbor as its countrymen to international meet and Ohio State will entertain Columbia at Columbus.

Then there is the Indiana-Syracuse encounter at Bloomington, also the Northwestern-Julian tilt at Chicago. Summed up, there are six east-west games for Big Ten teams; three west-south and one west-far west.

And in only three of the clashes, the Illinois-Penn, Chicago-Penn and Iowa-Southern California, will the Western Conference entry be playing on hostile territory. A few years ago it was quite similar to pulling molar to entice a big eastern university to send its team into the middle west. True, Syracuse, Penn and Cornell used to make the trip, meeting Michigan in home-and-home games. But they were exceptions.

This fall, however, four of the larger schools from the Atlantic seaboard community are set to appear on Big Ten gridirons. They are the Navy, Dartmouth, Columbia and Syracuse. Mayhap Princeton sort of started the fashion a couple of years back when it journeyed to Chicago for the second of a two-game series with the Maroons, the latter having played at Old Nassau the season before.

All in all, Western Conference schools are well supplied with inter-sectional competition this campaign. And some interesting comparisons of the relative merits of the various sectors should result. Moreover, mammoth crowds are certain to attend for games between teams from different parts of the country always prove exceptionally attractive.

LEAGUE BANNERS DECIDED IN WEEK

Pirates Need Only 4 More Wins in 10 Games and Senators 5 in 12 More Tilts

New York—(AP)—Settlement of the major league pennant races this week is probable. The Pirates need only four victories out of their remaining ten games to capture the flag and the Senators five of their twelve contests.

Irish Neusel had a big day in helping the Giants top the Cubs, 6 to 2 Sunday. He banged four rattles including a home run. Brooklyn's losing streak stretched to seven straight, the Cardinals taking the final of a series, 8-4. Four Robins were sent into the box. Calson limited the Reds to three hits while the Phillies won their last game at Cincinnati, 3-0.

TEN INNING GAME
Washington emerged on top in a ten-inning struggle with the White Sox, 6-5. Zachary relieving Walter Johnson in the eighth with score tied at five all. Johnson twisted a leg muscle sliding into third base but is expected to be able to pitch when his turn comes.

Bullet Joe Bush ruled master in the box at New York, holding the Yankees to four hits while the Browns collected 17 off Penneck and Shawkey to win by 5-4.

MEADOWS IN BEST YEAR OF CAREER

Lee Meadows, the bespectacled pitcher of the Pirates, is enjoying the best season of his major league career. He's been hurling exceptional ball all season and along with Yde has been the outstanding member of the McKeenline mound forces. Meadows came to Pittsburgh from the Phillies via trade in the middle of the 1923 campaign.

HANGS UP MARK

Star second baseman of the Milwaukee American Associated team, who recently smashed Larry Layole's record of 1025 chances in 156 games established in 1908. Melillo, in 141 frays, had 1035, and with the season not yet over should add several more chances to his list. He's one of the best infielders in the Double A organization.

APPLETON FIGHT CARD MAKES HIT

Milwaukee Fans Show Greatest Interest of Any Time in a Valley Mitt Melee

Milwaukee—The night of Sept. 24 will be haymaker night at Appleton for Harry Kahn, Wisconsin's light-chard champion, and Reddy Blanchard, St. Paul's best bet in the light-weight division. It has been years since an upstate bout has kicked up such a cloud of interest hereabouts. The Kahn-Blanchard and Clein-Graylock bouts certainly would appeal to Milwaukee fans, but the new Appleton promoters were determined to give the Fox River Valley fans the best that can be secured regardless of cost. With this fine array of "talent" sold out house is expected. Kahn and Graylock are doing their training at the Mitchell Camp on the upper Milwaukee river. Clein is at Morrenroth's gym and Blanchard is at St. Paul where he is boxing from six to eight rounds daily with his stable mate, Buddy McDonald. All the boys are rounding into splendid shape and are confident of victory.

OLD ORANGE GRIDDER PLAYS WITH NORMALS

Milton "Deadhorse" Scheurle, former Appleton high school grid and cage star, and a member of the Kimberly-Clark basketball squad of 1924-25, winners of second place at the state amateur tourney at Racine, is working good at fullback on the Oshkosh Normal squad according to reports from the Sauk city. Scheurle was a center on the Orange cage squad for two years, starting as a sub under A. C. Denny, present Lawrence mentor, and played center on the local grid squad, graduating in 1922. He was out of school last year.

Milt was shifted to fullback when he went out for the teacher's squad because of his weight, range and speed. He is said to have an excellent chance of making his letter in his freshman year with the Sauk city crew which is short of veteran backfield material.

PACKERS COP 1ST PRO LEAGUE TILT

Hammond All-Stars Victims of Hard-driving Green Bay Squad's Attack, 14-0

SUNDAY GAMES
GREEN BAY 14, HAMMOND 0
Rock Island 0, Chicago Bears 0

Green Bay—The Green Bay Packers, professional grid champs of Wisconsin, rounded up their first victory in the chase for the National Professional Football league pennant Sunday by defeating the Hammond, Ind., All-Stars before a crowd of 3,000 spectators. The Big Bay Blues scored their first touchdown in the second quarter when Mathys shot a pass to Levellen. Early in the final period the Packers marched straight down the field and Basing plunged over for a touchdown.

VEGARA IS STAR
The visitors played flashy football and several times threatened the Packers goal, only to be stopped by the stonewall defence of the Bay squad. Hammond showed well on defense also. The Packers completed 10 out of 22 passes while the All-Stars got 3 out of 14. Vegara, former Notre Dame flash, starred at end for the Packers and Levellen, trainer at the Mitchell Camp on the upper Milwaukee river, Clein is at Morrenroth's gym and Blanchard is at St. Paul where he is boxing from six to eight rounds daily with his stable mate, Buddy McDonald. All the boys are rounding into splendid shape and are confident of victory.

32 PRO GOLFERS IN BIG CHICAGO TOURNEY

Chicago—(AP)—Thirty-two professional golfers will qualify Monday over the third and fourth courses of Olympia fields for match play in competition for the Professional Golfers Association championship.

Walter Hagen of Florida, defending champion, will not have to depend on his scoring to survive as did the other 66 men who were chosen in regional contests.

Play was over two of the four links of the largest golf club in the world. Both courses have a par of 70.

Before Monday's play predictions were that it would require a score of 153 or better to qualify for the matches.

Frank Welsh, star pro of the Butte Des Morts Country club, of this city, will compete in the meet. Welsh a Chicago boy, got his start and was an assistant pro to his brother on the Olympia fields course a few years ago.

The ancient game of golf Saturday morning with the result that the 1925 Caddie Championship of River View Country club, one of the closing events of the season, had to be called off. Friday night's rain put the links in bad condition and the youngsters who were anxious to show their bosses what they knew about the game, had to be content to postpone their big event. Three prizes are offered for the winners. Jim Rose, club pro, is in charge.

Holding the slugging Fond du Lac crew to three very scattered bingles in an Eastern Wisconsin loop game at the Fountain City Sunday, "Pokey" Pocan, star hurler of the Appleton corps, was balked of his revenge on the Sandermen when they managed to tie the Papermakers in 14 innings of the best ball played in the loop this year. The game was called in the 14th because of darkness. Schramm, the loop strikeout king, allowed eight hits, five more than the local twirler, but only four pair of Appleton spikes denied the rubber. The game left Plymouth, winner of Campbellsport, in first place and kept Chilton down below Appleton in third. Fondy and Appleton will play a return game at Appleton next week to break the tie (til, an extra game for both teams which were to end the season Sunday).

CHANGED LINEUP
Pocan fanned 12 batters and Schramm got 13 and the local man walked 6 to Louie's 5. Both uncorked one wild peg. Sanders who got two of Fondy's three hits, garnered a two-bagger as did Pocan. Sanders and L. Faris scored all of Fondy's runs and Bohman got the other hit. Last got two nice drives to top the Appleton batters. Appleton's revised lineup which shook up the entire crew considerably played five ball. C. Tornow second baseman, worked at short and Al Gosha, first baseman, tried the third hackack. Manager Baetz, an outfielder, was at second base and Cully Schultz, whose ankle has bothered him since his tough-luck accident about a month ago, occupied the bench. Radtke, a sub outfielder, took over at the initial bag and Coach C. L. "Doc" Kolb played left field until the fifth inning when a fractured bone in his right arm caused H. Thein to replace him.

SCORE TIED IN FIFTH
The Sandermen made things look bad right from the start and had the home fans wild when they scored in the first and third frames. Pocan erred on Sanders drive and Red shot across on a stolen base and two sacrifice hits in the opener. In the third, a double by the redoubtable Ruddy bass, a wild pitch, a sacrifice hit and an error by Gosha brought Sanders and L. Faris over. After that Pocan settled down and pitched nice ball. Appleton tied the score in the fifth when Schramm walked Crowe, and Doc Kolb and Last came through with hits in quick succession, followed by a pass to Radtke, a fielders choice and an error on Gosha's drive.

EXTRA INNING TILT
Fondy scored in the last of the eighth when Squaw again became wild and passed L. Faris, Senecal and Sonn. C. Tornow erred on Weed's drive and the run was over. Pokey ended the inning by fanning two men. Fondy fans began packing up to go home, thinking the game was easily won with Schramm breezing along nicely but Appleton kicked up a notch more and tied 'er up in the first of the ninth. Putting on steam, Louie fanned Theni and Last but walked Radtke. C. Tornow got on on an error and Gosha walked with the bases loaded. Louie uncorked his only wild peg of the day, a castly one, and like Pocan's tilt counted for a run. Baetz went out second to first. Fondy went out one-two-three to end the regular game. Pocan throwing out Sanders and L. Faris at first and fanning Steen, the three best Fondy batters. Bohman

BLUES LOSE CRACK TACKLE AND KICKER

Lawrence college, 1924 champion of the Little-Five, suffered its hardest blow in many years Saturday, with the announcement that Ray Dunham of Lacrosse 217-pound all-state and all-midwest tackle on the 1924 grid squad, will not return to school this fall. The Blue line already riddled by graduation of several men, and Dunham was expected to fill a big hole. He left school last spring, but was expected to return this fall. The big tackle was rated as one of the best extra-point kickers in the middle west and his foot was counted on to help the Blues through the tight holes. He counted many from near midfield last year and sent practically every kickoff far over the enemy goal line.

MEETING, ROHAN

TALK AT PICNIC

Farmers Invited to Farmer-City Gathering at Wieckert Farm Wednesday Evening

A. G. Meating, county superintendent, and E. J. Rohan, superintendent of Appleton schools, will be the principal speakers at the farm and city picnic, and entertainment program to be held Wednesday evening at the Walter Wieckert farm, nine miles north of Appleton, on the Mackville-rd. An invitation has been extended Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wieckert to all farmers of Outagamie to attend and to bring their basket lunches with them. Farmers who cannot arrive early enough for supper are urged to attend the educational program which will follow the picnic, and which will be directed by Mr. Meating and Mr. Rohan. An open forum discussion will follow talks.

B. L. OFFICERS AT CONVENTION

Sherman and Beckley Are Delegates to State League Meeting in Session at Wausau

John J. Sherman, president, and George H. Beckley, secretary, of Appleton Building and Loan association, left Monday morning for Wausau to attend the annual convention of the Wisconsin League of Building and Loan associations. They were accompanied also by Miss Mary Sherman.

The Appleton party was to join a motorcade at noon at Wausau consisting of a big Milwaukee delegation and others who met the procession of cars enroute. All association members taking part in the tour were to be served a chicken dinner at noon at Wausau and then were to embark together for Wausau.

Convention sessions will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, with headquarters at Hotel Wausau. Some of the principal speakers are: Eugene Wengert, district attorney of Milwaukee; Phil P. Hayes, president of Milwaukee Real Estate board; Clyde P. Diggles, state supervisor of building and loan associations; George McKinnis, first vice president of United States League of Local Building and Loan associations.

Social events consist of a stag party Monday evening, a dancing party Tuesday evening, an automobile tour Wednesday afternoon and a banquet Wednesday evening with C. B. Bird as the speaker.

George H. Beckley is a member of the state league's executive committee.

DEATHS

MRS. AUGUSTA KRUEGER

Mrs. Augusta Krueger, 1409 W. College-ave, died at 7 o'clock Saturday evening. She was born in Brandenburg, and had made her home in Appleton for the last 27 years. Thirty-two years ago she was married to William Krueger, who died nine years ago.

The survivors are nine children, Anna, Alma, Ethel, George, Myrtle, Walter, Harland, Eugene and William all of Appleton; one grandchild, one sister, Mrs. Emma Luck of Milwaukee; two brothers, William Behl of Black Creek and Herman Behl of Appleton.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the home and at 2:30 from St. John Lutheran church. The Rev. W. R. Wetzel will be in charge. Interment will be in Riverside cemetery.

Foreclose Mortgage

A chattel mortgage of $400 on all the household furniture of W. H. Leist, Hortonville, and held by the Bank of Hortonville was foreclosed Friday after a civil suit in municipal court, which ended in a judgment for the bank. All of Mr. Leist's household effects are now the property of the bank. The defendant did not contend the suit.

STATE MEN TALK TO WALTONS ON WATER CONTROL

Pollution of River Subject for Discussion at State Meeting in Green Bay

Because of renewed interest in the pollution of waters in the Fox River valley, resulting from the finding of thousands of dead fish near Neenah and Appleton early last week and at DePere a few months ago, the state board of health will arrange a special program on the subject as a feature of the annual convention of the Wisconsin division, Isaac Walton League, to be held at Green Bay Oct. 14 and 15.

The subject will be opened by C. M. Baker, state sanitary engineer, with an address on Stream Pollution Control. A discussion will follow, led by Frank R. King, an administrative officer of the state board of health. Mr. Baker proposes to use slides to illustrate certain phases of his address.

Dr. C. A. Harper, state health officer, also will attend the convention and deliver an address on the subject. The board further contemplates using a state map showing pollution, organization and similar matters of interest. The board has asked the conservation commission to do likewise, and the request will undoubtedly be met.

Other state officials who will appear before the convention are Neil Harrington of the forestry division, who will speak on the forestry program and fire protection; H. M. Webster of the division of fisheries, who will speak on hatcheries and Elmer S. Hall, conservation commissioner, who will talk on the general administration of his department.

MORE STATIONS WANT LICENSES

Government Engineers Seek Wavelengths for Broadcasters Who Want to Get on Air

Washington—With more than 580 broadcasting stations now in operation, radio engineers are seeking wavelengths for new stations which are constantly applying for licenses. Congestion problems could be solved if it were possible to keep the aerial traffic jams out of the cities.

A recent tabulation of all stations by the Radio Bureau shows that out of 47 stations in Illinois, 17 are in Chicago. New York City and immediate vicinity has most of New York state's 34.

California, with 48, leads all states in the number of stations. Eight of these are in Los Angeles, seven in San Francisco, five in Oakland, and three in Hollywood.

During the summer the Bureau of Standards has conducted tests of so-called super-power stations. Results showed that high-power did not result in signals of such overwhelming intensity as to drown out smaller stations.

The investigations also disclosed that reception from stations broadcasting with ordinary power, more than 50 miles away, is continually fluctuating.

While engineers are experimenting, the public is increasing its use of radio.

The Department of Agriculture estimates that more than 550,000 American farms are equipped with radio receiving sets.

DEMAND CONGRESS ACT TO PRESERVE DEFENSE

Prompt and proper action on appropriations for military establishment under the national defense act will be demanded of congress in a resolution which will be drafted by chapters of the reserve officers association in this locality, according to a decision made at a meeting at Green Bay Wednesday evening. Maj. Fred Hoffman, Jr., and Lieut. William W. Frank of Appleton, who are members of Fox River Valley chapter, were present.

This was the regular meeting of the Green Bay chapter and representatives from Appleton, Oconto Falls, Gillett and Waupaca also were present. The resolution is to be drawn up and presented at a meeting quite soon. The association desires to overthrow those who are thwarting appropriations for the national guard and attempting to weaken the nation's plans for an adequate reserve force.

Lieut. Henry Marx of Green Bay, gave a report on the recent state convention of reserve officers at Eau Claire.

NOTED SOLOIST SINGS WEEK AT ELITE THEATRE

John Griffin, young Irish tenor who has been heard in high class radio concerts and who has appeared on the concert stage in many cities, will sing a week's engagement at the Elite theater beginning Monday. It was announced by Neil Duffy, proprietor. Mr. Griffin will sing afternoon and evening and arrangements probably will be made to have him sing request numbers.

Mr. Griffin has had a varied experience as a tenor soloist. He completed a tour of the Keith circuit as tenor soloist with Edgar Van Alstyne, composer, pianist, and he has been featured in several of the largest theaters in Chicago.

Griffin is an American and comes from a family of singers. His brother is tenor soloist with the National Opera company of London.

HOPE TO CLOSE LEGION CAMPAIGN THIS WEEK

With more than $4,000 of the quota of $5,000 for the American Legion Endowment Fund raised, members of the local post expect to close the campaign the early part of this week with a final canvass of the city.

Pains for the closing of the campaign were completed at a meeting of the executive committee last week. Those parts of the city which have not yet been covered will be visited by legion members, and it is expected that the balance will be secured within one or two days.

AGRELL TO OPEN OSHKOSH STORE

Leaves Employment of Pettibone-Peabody Co. After 20-year Term of Service

Fred L. Agrell has resigned his position with Pettibone-Peabody Co. after more than 20 years of service there, and has gone to Oshkosh, where he will go into business. He expects to open a store at 74 Main-st., that city, in the former J. C. Penny Co. location, in partnership with Orville C. Lucas of Chicago. The firm will be known as the Oshkosh Rug and Drapery shop.

Mr. Agrell is a graduate of the New York School of Interior Decorating and was buyer and department manager of the carpet and drapery department of the Pettibone store. His organization has fitted up some of the nicest homes in Appleton during the last few years.

The new firm in Oshkosh will open for business about Oct. 15, specializing in rugs, draperies, window curtains and interior decorating. Miss Laura Schlosser, who was employed by Saecker-Dederrich Co., here, has been engaged to assist in the store.

Mr. Agrell completed his work here Saturday and now is in Oshkosh making arrangements for the opening. The family already has moved from 720 E. Eldorado-st. to Oshkosh and lives at 545 Sixteenth-st.

STORK AHEAD OF REAPER IN 1923, UNCLE SAM SAYS

227 More Births Than Deaths
in Appleton During Year,
Census Shows

"Doctor Stork" was 227 up on the Grim Reaper in Appleton during the year 1923, the former contributing 504 to the city's population and the latter taking off 277, it is apparent from a vital statistics report issued by the United States bureau of census. This means a victory of practically 2 to 1.

A similar gain in population is noted in most of the larger cities of Wisconsin. Oshkosh reported 730 births to 424 deaths, Green Bay 948 births to 591 deaths, Sheboygan 747 births to 408 deaths, Manitowoc 419 births to 239 deaths, Fond du Lac 696 births to 376 deaths, Wausau 550 births to 266 deaths, Milwaukee 10,999 births to 5,772 deaths.

The number of Appleton births, on the basis of the 1920 census, gives the city a birth rate of about 25 births per 1,000 population. This is slightly better than the rate for Wisconsin which was 21.5, and also better than the rate for the United States as a whole, which was 22.4.

Appleton's death rate was 13.5, slightly higher than the United States rate of 12.4 and the Wisconsin rate of 10.7. The nation had a total of 1,792,648 births and 992,287 deaths, and Wisconsin had 58,831 births and 29,231 deaths.

On the basis of 800,409 excess of births over deaths in the registration area of 31 states having 70 per cent of the population, it is estimated the native born population of the United States increased 5,716,500 since 1920.
